Dear Ms. Bass-Domel:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 859169.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. Initially, we note you did not submit any of the specified reports. To the extent any additional responsive information existed on the date you received the request, we assume you have released it. If you have not released any such information, you must do so at this time. See Gov't Code §§ 552.301(a), .302; see also Open Records Decision No. 664 (2000) (if governmental body concludes no exceptions apply to requested information, it must release information as soon as possible). You claim the submitted information may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code. Upon review of your arguments and the submitted information, we conclude you may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(2). However, you must release the basic information pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code.

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open-government/governmental-bodies/open-records-memorandum-rulings. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.
