

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

July 13, 2015

Mr. Jorge L. Ortegon, II
Assistant District Attorney
County of Hidalgo
100 North Closner, Room 303
Edinburg, Texas 78539

OR2015-14178

Dear Mr. Ortegon:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 571283 (ORR# 2015-0044-DA.SO).

The Hidalgo County Sheriff's Office (the "sheriff's office") received a request for arrest warrants, criminal complaints, incident reports, and offense reports involving a named individual. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.103, and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note the information submitted as Exhibit D was the subject of a previous request for information, as a result of which this office issued Open Records Letter No. 2015-14001 (2015). In that ruling, we determined the sheriff's office may not withhold the information at issue under section 552.108 of the Government Code because the sheriff's office failed to comply with section 552.301 of the Government Code in requesting a ruling from this office, must withhold the information we marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code, and must release the remaining information at issue pursuant to section 552.302 of the Government Code. We note the Act does not permit selective disclosure of information to the public. See id. §§ 552.007 (b), .021; Open Records Decision No. 463 at 1-2 (1987). Thus, as a general rule, if a governmental body voluntarily releases information to a member of the public, the information may not subsequently be withheld from another member of the public, unless public disclosure of the information is expressly prohibited by law or the information is confidential under law. See Gov't Code § 552.007(a); Open Records Decision Nos. 518 at 3 (1989), 490 at 2 (1988). You now raise section 552.103 of the Government Code for the information at issue. We note section 552.103 is a discretionary exception that protects a governmental body's interests and may be waived. See Dallas Area Rapid Transit v. Dallas Morning News, 4 S.W. 3d 469, 475-76 (Tex. App—Dallas 1999, no pet.) (governmental body may waive section 552.103); Open Records Decision No. 665 at 2 n.5 (2000) (discretionary exceptions generally). As such, section 552.103 does not prohibit the release of information or make information confidential. You also again raise section 552.108 of the Government Code for the information at issue. We note once this office has determined information is not excepted from disclosure, a governmental body may generally not seek another ruling pertaining to precisely the same information. See Gov't Code § 552.301(f); ORD 665 at 2 (governmental body not authorized to seek attorney general decision unless it in good faith believes valid legal arguments exist to support claimed exception). Thus, the information responsive to the previous request for information may not now be withheld under section 552.108. We have no indication there has been any change in the law, facts, or circumstances on which the previous ruling was based. Accordingly, we conclude the sheriff's office must rely on Open Records Letter No. 2015-14001 as a previous determination and withhold or release Exhibit D in accordance with that ruling. See Open Records Decision No. 673 (2001) (so long as law, facts, and circumstances on which prior ruling was based have not changed, first type of previous determination exists where requested information is precisely same information as was addressed in prior attorney general ruling, ruling is addressed to same governmental body, and ruling concludes that information is or is not excepted from disclosure). However, we will consider the submitted arguments against disclosure of the remaining information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes. Juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997, are confidential under section 58.007(c) of the Family Code, which reads as follows:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

- (1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;
- (2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c). For purposes of section 58.007(c), “child” means a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the reported conduct. See id. § 51.02(2). The information submitted as Exhibit B involves juvenile delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision that occurred after September 1, 1997. See id. § 51.03 (defining “delinquent conduct” and “conduct indicating a need for supervision” for purposes of Fam. Code § 58.007). It does not appear any of the exceptions in section 58.007 apply. Therefore, the sheriff’s office must withhold Exhibit B under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(c) of the Family Code.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must reasonably explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the information submitted as Exhibit C pertains to active criminal investigations or prosecutions. Based on your representation, we conclude the release of the information at issue would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to Exhibit C.

However, we note, and you acknowledge, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov’t Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-88; Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information considered to be basic information). Thus, with the exception of the basic information, the sheriff’s office may withhold Exhibit C under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup>As our ruling is dispositive for this information, we need not address the remaining arguments against its disclosure, except to note basic information held to be public in Houston Chronicle is generally not excepted from public disclosure under section 552.103 of the Government Code. Open Records Decision No. 597 (1991).

In summary, the sheriff's office must withhold or release Exhibit D in accordance with Open Records Letter No. 2015-14001. The sheriff's office must withhold Exhibit B under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(c) of the Family Code. With the exception of the basic information, which must be released, the sheriff's office may withhold Exhibit C under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.
