

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

July 14, 2015

Ms. Monica Salinas
Paralegal
Corpus Christi Independent School District
P.O. Box 110
Corpus Christi, Texas 78403-0110

OR2015-14298

Dear Ms. Salinas:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 571240.

The Corpus Christi Independent School District (the "district") received a request for personnel information and communications regarding the requestor's client. You state you are releasing some information. You state you have withheld some information pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA"), 20 U.S.C. § 1232g(a).<sup>1</sup> You claim the submitted is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.103 and 552.111 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup>The United States Department of Education Family Policy Compliance Office (the "DOE") has informed this office FERPA does not permit state and local educational authorities to disclose to this office, without parental or an adult student's consent, unredacted, personally identifiable information contained in education records for the purpose of our review in the open records ruling process under the Act. The DOE has determined FERPA determinations must be made by the educational authority in possession of the educational records. We have posted a copy of the letter from the DOE on the Attorney General's website at <http://www.oag.state.tx.us/open/20060725usdoe.pdf>.

<sup>2</sup> We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

Section 552.103 of the Government Code provides, in relevant part:

(a) Information is excepted from [required public disclosure] if it is information relating to litigation of a civil or criminal nature to which the state or a political subdivision is or may be a party or to which an officer or employee of the state or a political subdivision, as a consequence of the person's office or employment, is or may be a party.

(c) Information relating to litigation involving a governmental body or an officer or employee of a governmental body is excepted from disclosure under Subsection (a) only if the litigation is pending or reasonably anticipated on the date that the requestor applies to the officer for public information for access to or duplication of the information.

Gov't Code § 552.103(a), (c). A governmental body has the burden of providing relevant facts and documents to show section 552.103(a) applies in a particular situation. The test for meeting this burden is a showing that (1) litigation was pending or reasonably anticipated on the date the governmental body received the request for information, and (2) the requested information is related to that litigation. See Univ. of Tex. Law Sch. v. Tex. Legal Found., 958 S.W.2d 479, 481 (Tex. App.—Austin 1997, orig. proceeding); Heard v. Houston Post Co., 684 S.W.2d 210, 212 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 1984, writ ref'd n.r.e.); Open Records Decision No. 551 at 4 (1990). A governmental body must meet both prongs of this test for information to be excepted under section 552.103(a). See ORD 551 at 4.

Whether litigation is reasonably anticipated must be determined on a case-by-case basis. See Open Records Decision No. 452 at 4 (1986). To demonstrate litigation is reasonably anticipated, the governmental body must furnish concrete evidence that litigation involving a specific matter is realistically contemplated and is more than mere conjecture. Id. This office has long held that "litigation," for purposes of section 552.103, includes "contested cases" conducted in a quasi-judicial forum. See Open Records Decision Nos. 474 (1987), 368 (1983), 336 (1982), 301 (1982). In determining whether an administrative proceeding is conducted in a quasi-judicial forum, some of the factors this office considers are whether the administrative proceeding provides for discovery, evidence to be heard, factual questions to be resolved, the making of a record, and whether the proceeding is an adjudicative forum of first jurisdiction with appellate review of the resulting decision without a re-adjudication of fact questions. See Open Records Decision No. 588 (1991).

Section 21.256 of the Education Code provides that hearings requested under section 21.253 of the Education Code "shall be conducted in the same manner as a trial without a jury in a district court of [Texas].” Educ. Code § 21.256(e). Section 21.256 also specifically affords a teacher the right to be represented by a representative of the teacher’s choice; the right to hear the evidence on which the charges are based; the right to cross-examine each adverse witness; and the right to present evidence. See id. § 21.256(c). Section 21.256(d) provides the Texas Rules of Evidence apply at the hearing. See id. § 21.256(d). We also note that, in a chapter 21 hearing, the hearing examiner may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents; an appeal of the proceedings to the commissioner of education is based only on the record of the local hearing; and in a judicial appeal of the commissioner’s decision, the court must review the evidence pursuant to the substantial evidence rule. Id. §§ 21.255(a) (subpoena power of examiner), .301(c) (appeal based solely on local record), .307(e) (substantial evidence rule for judicial review). Therefore, we determine a hearing under chapter 21 of the Education Code constitutes litigation for purposes of section 552.103.

You inform us that prior to the receipt of the instant request, the district placed the requestor’s client on suspension with pay pending a recommendation of termination of her employment. You further explain the district has since decided to terminate her employment and the requestor’s client has served notice to the district she is contesting the district’s action, thus formally initiating the litigation process. Having considered your arguments, we find that, when the district received the request for information, litigation in the form of hearings under chapter 21 of the Education Code was reasonably anticipated for the employee at issue. See ORD 301 (litigation includes contested case before administrative agency). Further, we find the information at issue relates to the anticipated litigation. Based on your representations and our review, we find the information at issue is related to the anticipated litigation. Therefore, we agree section 552.103(a) is applicable to the submitted information.

However, once information has been obtained by all parties to the anticipated litigation through discovery or otherwise, no section 552.103(a) interest exists with respect to that information. See Open Records Decision Nos. 349 (1982). 320 (1982). Thus, information that has either been obtained from or provided to the opposing party in the anticipated litigation is not excepted from disclosure under section 552.103(a). We note the opposing party to the anticipated litigation has seen or had access to some of the information at issue. Therefore, the district may not withhold this information, which we have marked, under section 552.103(a). However, we agree the district may withhold the remaining information under section 552.103(a).<sup>3</sup> We note the applicability of section 552.103(a) ends once the litigation has been concluded or is no longer reasonably anticipated. Attorney General Opinion MW-575 at 2 (1982); Open Records Decision No. 350(1982).

<sup>3</sup>As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against its disclosure.

Section 552.111 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[a]n interagency or intraagency memorandum or letter that would not be available by law to a party in litigation with the agency[.]” Gov’t Code § 552.111. Section 552.111 encompasses the attorney work product privilege found in rule 192.5 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. Open Records Decision No. 677 at 4-8 (2002); see City of Garland v. Dallas Morning News, 22 S.W.3d 351, 377 (Tex. 2000). Rule 192.5 defines work product as

- (1) material prepared or mental impressions developed in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for a party or a party’s representatives, including the party’s attorneys, consultants, sureties, indemnitors, insurers, employees, or agents; or
- (2) a communication made in anticipation of litigation or for trial between a party and the party’s representatives or among a party’s representatives, including the party’s attorneys, consultants, sureties, indemnitors, insurers, employees or agents.

TEX. R. CIV. P. 192.5(a)(1)-(2). A governmental body seeking to withhold information under this exception bears the burden of demonstrating the information was created or developed for trial or in anticipation of litigation by or for a party or a party’s representative. Id.; ORD 677 at 6-8. In order for this office to conclude that the information was made or developed in anticipation of litigation, we must be satisfied that

- a) a reasonable person would have concluded from the totality of the circumstances . . . that there was a substantial chance that litigation would ensue; and b) the party resisting discovery believed in good faith that there was a substantial chance that litigation would ensue and [created or obtained the information] for the purpose of preparing for such litigation.

Nat’l Tank Co. v. Brotherton, 851 S.W.2d 193, 207 (Tex. 1993). A “substantial chance” of litigation does not mean a statistical probability, but rather “that litigation is more than merely an abstract possibility or unwarranted fear.” Id. at 204; ORD 677 at 7.

You claim the attorney work product privilege of section 552.111 of the Government Code for the information at issue. You state the information at issue consists of materials prepared by an attorney for the district in anticipation of litigation. However, as noted above, this information consists of communications involving the opposing party, who is not a privileged party. Thus, upon review, we find you have failed to establish the information at issue consists of privileged attorney work product. Therefore, the district may not withhold the remaining information as attorney work product under section 552.111 of the Government Code.

Section 552.137 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “an e-mail address of a member of the public that is provided for the purpose of communicating electronically with a governmental body” unless the member of the public consents to its release or the e-mail address is of a type specifically excluded by subsection (c). See Gov’t Code § 552.137(a)-(c). Upon review, we find the district must withhold the e-mail address we have marked under section 552.137 of the Government Code, unless the owner affirmatively consents to its public disclosure.

In summary, with the exception of the information we have marked for release, the district may withhold the submitted information under section 552.103 of the Government Code. The district must withhold the e-mail address we have marked under section 552.137 of the Government Code, unless the owner affirmatively consents to its public disclosure. The remaining information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl\_ruling\_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.
