July 22, 2015

Mr. Mark E. Dempsey
Assistant City Attorney
City of Garland
P.O. Box 469002
Garland, Texas 75046-9002

OR2015-14962

Dear Mr. Dempsey:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 572568 (GCA# 15-0265, 15-0287, 15-0288, 15-0289, 15-0290).

The Garland Police Department (the "department") received several requests for audio and video recordings related to a specified police chase. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 58.007 of the Family Code. Section 58.007 provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c). Juvenile law enforcement records relating to delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision that occurred on or after September 1, 1997, are confidential under section 58.007. See id. § 51.03(a), (b) (defining “delinquent conduct” and “conduct indicating a need for supervision”). For purposes of section 58.007(c), “child” means a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the conduct at issue. See id. § 51.02(2). The submitted information involves allegations of delinquent conduct that occurred after September 1, 1997. However, we are unable to determine the ages of the alleged offenders. Accordingly, we must rule conditionally. It does not appear that any of the exceptions to confidentiality under section 58.007 apply in this instance. Thus, to the extent any of the offenders were ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the conduct at issue, the submitted information is confidential under section 58.007(c) and must be withheld in its entirety under section 552.101. However, to the extent none of the offenders were ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the conduct at issue, the submitted information is not confidential pursuant to section 58.007(c) and it may not be withheld under section 552.101 on that basis.

To the extent section 58.007(c) of the Family Code is not applicable, we note a portion of the submitted information is subject to section 552.130 of the Government Code.¹ Section 552.130 provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator’s or driver’s license or permit, a motor vehicle title or registration, or a personal identification document issued by an agency of Texas or another state or country is excepted from public release. Gov’t Code § 552.130(a). To the extent the submitted information is not confidential under section 58.007 of the Family Code, the department must withhold the motor vehicle record information we have indicated under section 552.130.

In summary, to the extent any of the offenders in the submitted information were ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the conduct at issue, the department must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(c) of the Family Code. To the extent none of the offenders in the submitted information were ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age at the time of the conduct at issue, the department must withhold the motor vehicle record information we have indicated under section 552.130 of the Government Code and release the remaining information.
