Mr. Steve Smeltzer
Assistant General Counsel
Texas Department of Criminal Justice
Office of the General Counsel

OR2015-15439

Dear Mr. Smeltzer:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 573293.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for information related to applicants for a specified staffing selection. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.122 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.122(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[a] test item developed by an educational institution that is funded wholly or in part by state revenue[.]" Gov't Code § 552.122(a). In Open Records Decision No. 626 (1994), this office determined the term "test item" in section 552.122 includes "any standard means by which an individual's or group's knowledge or ability in a particular area is evaluated." ORD 626 at 6. The question of whether specific information falls within the scope of section 552.122(a) must be determined on a case-by-case basis. Id. at 7. Traditionally, this office has applied section 552.122 where release of "test items" might compromise the effectiveness of future examinations. See Open Records Decision No. 118 (1976). See generally ORD 626 at 4-5. Section 552.122 also protects the answers to test questions when the answers might reveal the questions themselves. See Attorney General Opinion JM-640 at 3 (1987).

You seek to withhold the submitted questions and answers under section 552.122 of the Government Code. You assert the questions test the technical expertise of the applicants. Upon review, however, we find the submitted questions do not evaluate an individual's or group's knowledge or ability in a particular area. Rather, the information at issue reveals questions that evaluate an applicant's individual abilities, personal opinions, and subjective ability to respond to a particular situation. Accordingly, the department may not withhold any portion of the submitted information under section 552.122 of the Government Code. The department must release the submitted information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl\_ruling\_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Claire V. Morris Sloan
Assistant Attorney General
