ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

January 5, 2016

Ms. Maureen Franz
Deputy Chief Counsel
Texas Health and Human Services Commission
P.O. Box 13247
Austin, Texas 78711

OR2016-00269

Dear Ms. Franz:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 593079.

The Texas Health and Human Services Commission (the "commission") received a request for all documentation relating to a specified investigation. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information protected by other statutes, including section 531.1021 of the Government Code, which provides, in relevant part, the following:

(g) All information and materials subpoenaed or compiled by the [commission's Office of Inspector General ("OIG")] in connection with an audit or investigation or by the office of the attorney general in connection with a Medicaid fraud investigation are confidential and not subject to disclosure under [the Act], and not subject to disclosure, discovery, subpoena, or other means of legal compulsion for their release to anyone other than the [OIG] or the attorney general or their employees or agents involved in the audit or investigation conducted by the [OIG] or the attorney general, except that this information may be disclosed to the state auditor's office, law enforcement agencies, and other entities as permitted by other law.

(h) A person who receives information under Subsection (g) may disclose the information only in accordance with Subsection (g) and in a manner that is consistent with the authorized purpose for which the person first received the information.

Id. § 531.1021(g), (h). You assert the submitted information is confidential under section 531.1021(g). Section 531.1021 is located in subchapter C of chapter 531 of the Government Code, titled "Medicaid and Other Health and Human Services Fraud, Abuse, or Overcharges." Section 531.102, also found in subchapter C, further specifies the OIG "is responsible for the investigation of fraud and abuse in the provision of health and human services[.]" Id. § 531.102(a). Thus, subchapter C addresses the responsibilities of the OIG in conducting investigations of Medicaid and other health and human services fraud and abuse. Therefore, section 531.1021 applies only to audits and investigations of Medicaid and other health and human services fraud and abuse. Upon review, we find the submitted information relates to an internal personnel investigation into the alleged misconduct of an employee. We find this information is not related to Medicaid or other health and human services fraud, abuse, or overcharges. Therefore, the commission may not withhold any of the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 531.1021(g) of the Government Code.

We note the submitted information includes e-mail addresses of members of the public that are subject to section 552.137 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> Section 552.137 excepts from disclosure "an e-mail address of a member of the public that is provided for the purpose of communicating electronically with a governmental body," unless the member of the public consents to its release or the e-mail address is of a type specifically excluded by subsection (c). Id. § 552.137(a)-(c). The e-mail addresses within the submitted information are not one of the types specifically excluded by section 552.137(c). See id. § 552.137(c). Accordingly, the commission must withhold the e-mail addresses within the submitted information under section 552.137 unless the owners of the addresses affirmatively consent to their release. As you raise no further exceptions to disclosure, the remaining information must be released. The remaining information must be released.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup>The Office of the Attorney General will raise a mandatory exception on behalf of a governmental body, but ordinarily will not raise other exceptions. See Open Records Decision Nos. 481 (1987), 480 (1987), 470 (1987).

<sup>2</sup>We note the information being released contains confidential information to which the requestor has a right of access. See Gov't Code § 552.023(a); Open Records Decision No. 481 at 4 (1987) (privacy theories not implicated when individual or authorized representative asks governmental body to provide information concerning that individual). Thus, if the commission receives another request for this particular information from a different requestor, then the commission should again seek a decision from this office.

You ask this office to issue a previous determination permitting the commission to withhold OIG investigatory records under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 531.1021(g) of the Government Code without seeking a ruling from this office. See id. § 552.301(a) (allowing governmental body to withhold information subject to previous determination); Open Records Decision No. 673 (2001) (listing elements of second type of previous determination under section 552.301(a) of the Government Code). We decline to issue such a previous determination at this time. Accordingly, this letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl\_ruling\_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839.
