

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

February 3, 2016

Ms. Michele Freeland
Legal Assistant
Office of General Counsel
Texas Department of Public Safety
P.O. Box 4087
Austin, Texas 78773-0001

OR2016-02576

Dear Ms. Freeland:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 596803 (DPS PIR No. 15-5760).

The Texas Department of Public Safety (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to a specified lab case number. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note some of the submitted information, which we have marked, is not responsive to the instant request because it was created after the date the request was received. This ruling does not address the public availability of any information that is not responsive to the request and the department is not required to release such information in response to this request.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 261.201 of the Family Code, which provides, in relevant part:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under [the Act] and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

(1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and

(2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

(k) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), an investigating agency, other than the [Texas Department of Family and Protective Services] or the Texas Juvenile Justice Department, on request, shall provide to the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child who is the subject of reported abuse or neglect, or to the child if the child is at least 18 years of age, information concerning the reported abuse or neglect that would otherwise be confidential under this section. The investigating agency shall withhold information under this subsection if the parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of the child requesting the information is alleged to have committed the abuse or neglect.

(l) Before a child or a parent, managing conservator, or other legal representative of a child may inspect or copy a record or file concerning the child under Subsection (k), the custodian of the record or file must redact:

(2) any information that is excepted from required disclosure under [the Act], or other law.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a), (k), (l)(2). Upon review, we find the responsive information was used or developed in an investigation of alleged or suspected child abuse under chapter 261 of the Family Code. See id. §§ 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of this section as person under 18 years of age who is not and has not been married or who has not had the disabilities of minority removed for general purposes), 261.001(1) (defining “abuse” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code). Accordingly, we find the responsive information is subject to chapter 261 of the Family Code. However, we note the requestor is the parent of the child victim named in the information at issue, and the parent is not alleged to have committed the abuse. Therefore, the department may not withhold the responsive information from the requestor under section 261.201(a). See id. § 261.201(k). We also note section 261.201(l)(2) states that any information excepted from required disclosure under the Act or other law may still be withheld from disclosure. See id.

§ 261.201(l)(2). Thus, we will consider your argument under section 552.101 of the Government Code for the responsive information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 411.153 of the Government Code, which provides, as follows:

(a) A DNA record stored in the DNA database is confidential and is not subject to disclosure under [the Act].

(b) A person commits an offense if the person knowingly discloses to an unauthorized recipient information in a DNA record or information related to a DNA analysis of a sample collected under this subchapter.

(c) An offense under this section is a state jail felony.

(d) A violation under this section constitutes official misconduct.

Id. § 411.153. A “DNA record” means the results of a forensic DNA analysis performed by a DNA laboratory. See id. § 411.141(6)-(7). “Forensic analysis” is defined as “a medical, chemical, toxicologic, ballistic, or other expert examination or test performed on physical evidence, including DNA evidence, for the purpose of determining the connection of the evidence to a criminal action.” See Crim. Proc. Code art. 38.35(4); see also Gov’t Code § 411.141(10) (providing that “forensic analysis” has meaning assigned by article 38.35). A “DNA database” means “one or more databases that contain forensic DNA records maintained by the director of [the department].” Gov’t Code § 411.141(5); see id. § 411.001(3).

The director of the department is required to establish certain procedures for DNA laboratories. See id. §§ 411.142(h) (requiring director establish standards for DNA analysis), .144(a). Section 411.144 of the Government Code provides that a DNA laboratory conducting a forensic DNA analysis under subchapter G of chapter 411 shall comply with subchapter G and the rules adopted under subchapter G. See id. § 411.144(d); 37 T.A.C. §§ 28.81, .82 (describing minimum standards by which forensic DNA laboratory must abide); see also Gov’t Code § 411.147(b).

We note some of the responsive information is information held by the department that is made confidential by section 411.153 of the Government Code. In Open Records Letter No. 2011-06624 (2011), we issued a previous determination that authorizes the department to withhold under section 552.101 of the Government Code information held by the department that is made confidential by section 411.153 of the Government Code, unless the release provisions in section 411.147(c) are applicable, without the necessity of again requesting an attorney general decision with regard to the applicability of this exception. See Gov’t Code § 552.301(a); Open Records Decision No. 673 at 7-8 (2001) (delineating elements of second type of previous determination under section 552.301(a)); see also Gov’t Code §§ 411.147(c), .153. You do not indicate the release provisions in section 411.147(c) are applicable in this instance. Therefore, pursuant to Open Records letter No. 2011-06624, the department must withhold most of the responsive information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 411.153 of the Government Code. See ORD 673. However, upon review, we find none of the remaining responsive information, which we have marked for release, constitutes DNA records relating to DNA analyses of samples collected under subchapter G of chapter 411 of the Government Code. Accordingly, the department may not withhold any of the remaining responsive information under section 552.101 of the Government Code on the basis of section 411.153 of the Government Code. As you raise no further exceptions to disclosure, the department must release the remaining responsive information we have marked for release.¹

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
