ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

April 25, 2016

Mr. Mark Neal
Associate Superintendent for Legal and Human Resources
Abilene Independent School District
P.O. Box 981
Abilene, Texas 79604

OR2016-09149

Dear Mr. Neal:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 607171.

The Abilene Independent School District (the "district") received a request for the winning proposal and contract related to a specified request for proposals. Although you take no position as to whether the submitted information is excepted under the Act, you state release of the submitted information may implicate the proprietary interests of Prologic Technology Systems, Inc. ("Prologic"). Accordingly, you state, and provide documentation demonstrating, you notified Prologic of the request for information and of its right to submit arguments to this office as to why the submitted information should not be released. See Gov't Code §§ 552.304, .305(d); see also Open Records Decision No. 542 (1990) (statutory predecessor to section 552.305 permits governmental body to rely on interested third party to raise and explain applicability of exception in the Act in certain circumstances). We have received comments from representatives of Prologic. We have reviewed the submitted arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.104(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information that, if released, would give advantage to a competitor or bidder." Gov't Code § 552.104(a). A private third party may invoke this exception. Boeing Co. v. Paxton, 466 S.W.3d 831, 839 (Tex. 2015). The "test under section 552.104 is whether knowing another bidder's [or competitor's information] would be an advantage, not whether it would be a decisive advantage." Id. at 841. Prologic states it has competitors. In addition, Prologic states release of the information it has marked would provide an advantage to another competitor or bidder. After review of the information at issue and consideration of the arguments, we find Prologic has established the release of the information at issue, which we have marked, would give advantage to a competitor or bidder. Thus, we conclude the district may withhold the information we have marked under section 552.104(a).

We note some of the remaining information at issue may be protected by copyright. A custodian of public records must comply with the copyright law and is not required to furnish copies of records that are copyrighted. Open Records Decision No. 180 at 3 (1977). A governmental body must allow inspection of copyrighted materials unless an exception applies to the information. Id.; see Open Records Decision No. 109 (1975). If a member of the public wishes to make copies of copyrighted materials, the person must do so unassisted by the governmental body. In making copies, the member of the public assumes the duty of compliance with the copyright law and the risk of a copyright infringement suit.

In summary, the district may withhold the information we have marked under section 552.104(a). The remaining information must be released; however, any information protected by copyright may only be released in accordance with copyright law.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Tim Neal
