OR2016-10057

Dear Ms. Fleming:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 608528.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for several categories of information pertaining to the requestor's parole, including information regarding the decision to place the requestor on electronic monitoring. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.134 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 508.313 of the Government Code, which provides, in part:

- (a) All information obtained and maintained [by the department], including a victim protest letter or other correspondence, a victim impact statement, a list of inmates eligible for release on parole, and an arrest record of an inmate, is confidential and privileged if the information relates to:

- (1) an inmate of the institutional division [of the department] subject to release on parole, release to mandatory supervision, or executive clemency;
- (2) a releasee; or
- (3) a person directly identified in any proposed plan of release for an inmate.

Id. § 508.313(a); see id. § 508.001(9) (“releasee” means a person released on parole or to mandatory supervision). You inform us the submitted information consists of records of a releasee that are subject to section 508.313 of the Government Code. You state the requestor, in this instance, is not authorized to obtain this information under section 508.313(c). See id. § 508.313(c). Further, you state this information is not made public under chapter 62 of the Code of Criminal Procedure or section 552.029 of the Government Code. See id. § 508.313(e), (f). Accordingly, the department must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 508.313 of the Government Code.¹

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Britni Ramirez
Assistant Attorney General
Open Records Division
