Mr. Bryan D. Snoddy
General Counsel
Texas Board of Chiropractic Examiners

OR2016-12580

Dear Mr. Snoddy:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 612598.

The Texas Board of Chiropractors (the "board") received a request for all files pertaining to a named individual. You state you have released some information. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information made confidential by other statutes, such as section 201.206 of the Occupations Code, which provides, in relevant part:

(a) The board's investigation files are confidential, privileged, and not subject to discovery, subpoena, or any other means of legal compulsion for release other than to the board or an employee or agent of the board.

(d) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), the board may:

- (1) disclose a complaint to the affected license holder; and
- (2) provide to a complainant the license holder's response to the complaint, if providing the response is considered by the board to be necessary to investigate the complaint.

Occ. Code § 201.206(a), (d). You assert the submitted information is confidential under section 201.206 of the Occupations Code. We note section 201.206 applies to all investigations pending or filed on or after September 1, 2003. See Act of May 9, 2003, 78th Leg., R.S., ch. 329, § 7(b), 2003 Tex. Gen. Laws 1405, 1407. The submitted information reveals the investigation file at issue was opened prior to September 1, 2003, and the submitted information indicates it was closed prior to this date. Therefore, we find you have failed to demonstrate the submitted information is confidential under section 201.206, and it may not be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that basis.

Section 552.137 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "an e-mail address of a member of the public that is provided for the purpose of communicating electronically with a governmental body," unless the member of the public consents to its release or the e-mail address is of a type specifically excluded by subsection (c).¹ Gov't Code § 552.137(a)-(c). The e-mail address we have marked is not of the type specifically excluded by section 552.137(c). See id. § 552.137(c). Accordingly, the board must withhold the e-mail address we have marked under section 552.137, unless the owner of the e-mail address affirmatively consents to its release. As you raise no other exceptions to disclosure, the remaining information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
