Vice Chancellor and General Counsel

Dear Mr. Gomez:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 625652.

The Lamar Institute of Technology (the "institute") received a request for information related to a specified section of a specified course.¹ You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.122 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.²

Section 552.122(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[a] test item developed by an educational institution that is funded wholly or in part by state revenue[.]" Gov't Code

¹You state the institute sought and received clarification of the information requested. See Gov't Code § 552.222 (providing if request for information is unclear, governmental body may ask requestor to clarify request); see also City of Dallas v. Abbott, 304 S.W.3d 380, 387 (Tex. 2010) (holding that when a governmental entity, acting in good faith, requests clarification or narrowing of an unclear or overbroad request for information, the ten-day period to request an attorney general ruling is measured from the date the request is clarified or narrowed).

²We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

§ 552.122(a). In Open Records Decision No. 626 (1994), this office determined the term “test item” in section 552.122 includes “any standard means by which an individual’s or group’s knowledge or ability in a particular area is evaluated.” ORD 626 at 6. The question of whether specific information falls within the scope of section 552.122(a) must be determined on a case-by-case basis. Id. at 7. Traditionally, this office has applied section 552.122 where release of “test items” might compromise the effectiveness of future examinations. See Open Records Decision No. 118 (1976). See generally ORD 626 at 4-5. Section 552.122 also protects the answers to test questions when the answers might reveal the questions themselves. See Attorney General Opinion JM-640 at 3 (1987).

You seek to withhold the submitted questions and answers under section 552.122 of the Government Code. You assert the questions test the knowledge and abilities of applicants in a particular area. You also inform us the institute uses the submitted questions on a continuing basis. Based on your representations and our review, we find the submitted questions and answer choices are “test items” under section 552.122(a) of the Government Code. Therefore, the institute may withhold the questions and answer choices under section 552.122(a) of the Government Code. However, we find the submitted answer keys do not reveal the questions themselves. Accordingly, the institute may not withhold the answer keys under section 552.122 of the Government Code. The institute must release the remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,
