OR2016-21755

Dear Mr. Brown and Mr. West:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 628141 (OIG Open Records 2016-00152).

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received two requests from different requestors for information pertaining to a specified death. The department's Office of the General Counsel (the "OGC") and Office of the Inspector General (the "OIG") have submitted separate briefs, as well as separate documents that each seeks to withhold from disclosure. The OIG states it does not possess information responsive to a portion of one of the requests.<sup>1</sup> The OGC claims the information it submitted is excepted from disclosure under section 552.134 of the Government Code. The OIG claims the information it <sup>1</sup>The Act does not require a governmental body to release information that did not exist when a request for information was received or to prepare new information in response to a request. See Econ. Opportunities Dev. Corp. v. Bustamante, 562 S.W.2d 266, 267-68 (Tex. Civ. App.—San Antonio 1978, writ dismissed); Open Records Decision Nos. 605 at 2 (1992), 452 at 3 (1986), 362 at 2 (1983).

submitted is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.102, 552.108, 552.117, 552.1175, 552.130, 552.134, and 552.147 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exceptions and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note the submitted information includes a custodial death report. Article 49.18(b) of the Code of Criminal Procedure provides that with the exception of any portion of the custodial death report the Office of the Attorney General (“OAG”) determines is privileged, the OAG shall make the report public. See Crim. Proc. Code art. 49.18(b). Although the OIG claims the submitted custodial death report is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.108, and 552.134 of the Government Code and the OGC claims it is excepted from disclosure under section 552.134, the exceptions to disclosure found in the Act do not generally apply to information that other statutes make public. See Open Records Decision Nos. 623 at 3 (1994), 525 at 3 (1989). Therefore, the department must release the submitted custodial death report, which we have marked, pursuant to article 49.18(b) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Section 552.134 of the Government Code is applicable to information related to inmates of the department. Section 552.134(a) states that [e]xcept as provided by Subsection (b) or by Section 552.029 [of the Government Code], information obtained or maintained by the [department] is excepted from [required public disclosure] if it is information about an inmate who is confined in a facility operated by or under a contract with the department.

Gov’t Code § 552.134(a). Section 552.029 of the Government Code provides, in part, that [n]otwithstanding Section . . . 552.134, the following information about an inmate who is confined in a facility operated by or under a contract with the [department] is subject to required disclosure under Section 552.021:

(8) basic information regarding the death of an inmate in custody, an incident involving the use of force, or an alleged crime involving the inmate.

Id. § 552.029(8). Thus, section 552.134 is explicitly made subject to section 552.029. Although the inmate to whom the submitted information pertains is deceased, section 552.134 is applicable to information that relates to the decedent as an inmate. Thus, we find section 552.134 is generally applicable to the remaining information. We note, however, the information in question is related to the death of an inmate in custody. Therefore, the department must release basic information about the inmate’s death pursuant to section 552.029. The basic information that must be released includes the time and place of the incident, the names of inmates and of department employees who were involved, a brief narrative of the incident, a brief description of any injuries sustained by anyone involved, and information regarding any criminal charges or disciplinary actions that were filed as a result of the incident. Accordingly, except for basic information under section 552.029(8) of the Government Code, the department must withhold the remaining information under section 552.134 of the Government Code.<sup>2</sup>

In summary, the department must release the submitted custodial death report, which we have marked, pursuant to article 49.18(b) of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Except for the basic information under section 552.029(8) of the Government Code, which must be released, the department must withhold the remaining information under section 552.134 of the Government Code.
