Dear Ms. Worman:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 633740.

The Texas Real Estate Commission (the "commission") received a request for all documents relating to complaints filed by or against two named companies and three named individuals. You state you have released some information. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 1101.2051 of the Occupations Code, which provides the following:

- (a) Information or material, including an investigation file, is confidential and not subject to disclosure under [the Act], or any other means of legal compulsion for release, including disclosure, discovery, or subpoena, if the information or material is prepared or compiled by the commission in connection with a complaint, investigation, or audit of any person subject to the jurisdiction of the commission.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), information or material prepared or compiled by the commission in connection with a complaint, investigation, or audit may be disclosed:

(1) to the respondent of the complaint;

(2) to a person that is the subject of an audit;

(3) to a person providing a service to the commission, an expert or other witness, or an investigator, if the information is necessary for preparation for, or a presentation in, a disciplinary proceeding against an applicant or license holder, or a subsequent trial or appeal taken from a disciplinary proceeding;

(4) to an entity in another jurisdiction that licenses, registers, credentials, or disciplines any person subject to the jurisdiction of the commission;

(5) to a law enforcement agency;

(6) to the State Office of Administrative Hearings; or

(7) to the commission, or a panel of the commission, for use during any proceeding conducted by the State Office of Administrative Hearings or in a subsequent trial or appeal of a commission action or order.

(e) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), on the dismissal or final resolution of a complaint, investigation, or audit, information or materials prepared or compiled by the commission in connection with the complaint, investigation, or audit, including a completed audit report or a final order of the commission, is subject to disclosure under Chapter 321 [of the Government Code or the Act].

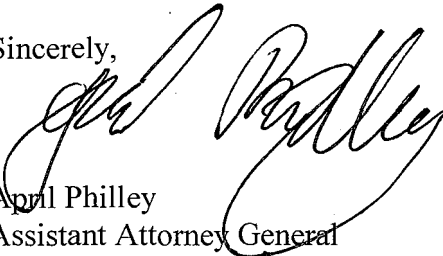

Occ. Code § 1101.2051(a)-(b), (e). The commission explains the submitted information consists of its investigation file for a complaint. The commission also informs us it prepared or compiled the information in conjunction with the investigation of the complaint. The commission further states the person under investigation is subject to the commission's jurisdiction. Thus, we determine the submitted information is subject to section 1101.2051. The commission states its investigation in this matter remains ongoing, and it has not dismissed the complaint at issue or entered a final order in this matter. Therefore, the submitted information does not fall under section 1101.2051(e). Further, we find the requestor is not entitled to receive this information under section 1101.2051(b). Accordingly, we conclude the commission must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 1101.2051(a) of the Occupations Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
