Dear Ms. Schloss:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 634662.

The Texas General Land Office (the "GLO") received three requests from different requestors for bids related to a specified project. You state the GLO does not have information responsive to a portion of the second request.<sup>1</sup> You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.104 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.104(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information that, if released, would give advantage to a competitor or bidder." Gov't Code § 552.104(a). The "test under section 552.104 is whether knowing another bidder's [or competitor's information] would be an advantage, not whether it would be a decisive advantage." Boeing Co. v. Paxton, 466 S.W.3d 831 (Tex. 2015). You state the submitted information pertains to a competitive bidding situation. You also state the submitted bid applications are still being evaluated and that no decisions have been made regarding these proposals. You argue revealing any portion of the submitted information “would severely hamper, and even damage[,] the GLO’s ability to obtain competitive application for the limited funding.” After review of the submitted information and consideration of your arguments, we find you have established release of the submitted information would give advantage to a competitor or bidder. Thus, we conclude the GLO may withhold the submitted information under section 552.104(a) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
