Mr. Charles D. Wise
Attorney
Bexar Appraisal District
P.O. Box 830248
San Antonio, Texas 78283-0248

OR2016-25466

Dear Mr. Wise:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 634288.

The Bexar Appraisal District (the "district") received a request for information pertaining to a specified company. You state you are releasing some information. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.103, and 552.149 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 22.27 of the Tax Code, which states in pertinent part:

- (a) Rendition statements, real and personal property reports, attachments to those statements and reports, and other information the owner of property provides to the appraisal office in connection with the appraisal of the property, including income and expense information related to a property filed with an appraisal office and information voluntarily disclosed to an appraisal office or the comptroller about real or personal property sales prices after a promise it will be held confidential, are confidential and not open to public inspection. The statements and reports and the information they contain about specific real or personal property or a specific real or personal property owner and information voluntarily disclosed to an appraisal office about real or personal property sales prices after a promise it will be held confidential may not be disclosed to anyone other than an employee of the appraisal office who appraises property except as authorized by Subsection (b) of this section.

Id. § 22.27(a). The district argues the submitted information in Exhibit B is confidential under section 22.27(a). You state the district is an appraisal office for purposes of section 22.27. You state the information at issue “consists of documents generated using information obtained from property owners under a promise of confidentiality.” You do not indicate any of the exceptions in section 22.27(b) apply in this instance. See id. § 22.27(b). However, you do not inform us which portions of the information at issue were provided by property owners. Thus, we must rule conditionally. To the extent any of Exhibit B was provided by property owners in connection with an appraisal, the district must withhold such information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 22.27 of the Tax Code. However, to the extent any of Exhibit B was not provided by property owners in connection with an appraisal, the information is not confidential under section 22.27(a) of the Tax Code and the district may not withhold it under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that basis.

The district also claims section 552.149 of the Government Code for any remaining information in Exhibit B. Section 552.149 provides, in relevant part:

(a) Information relating to real property sales prices, descriptions, characteristics, and other related information received from a private entity by the comptroller or the chief appraiser of an appraisal district under Chapter 6, Tax Code, is excepted from the requirements of [the Act].

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), the property owner or the owner’s agent may, on request, obtain from the chief appraiser of the applicable appraisal district a copy of each item of information described by Section 41.461(a)(2), Tax Code, and a copy of each item of information that the chief appraiser took into consideration but does not plan to introduce at the hearing on the protest. In addition, the property owner or agent may, on request, obtain from the chief appraiser comparable sales data from a reasonable number of sales that is relevant to any matter to be determined by the appraisal review board at the hearing on the property owner’s protest[.]

Gov’t Code § 552.149(a)-(b). Subsections 552.149(a) and (b) are limited to those counties having a population of 50,000 or more. Id. § 552.149(e). We note Bexar County has a population of 50,000 or more. You state any remaining information at issue in Exhibit B

“includes documents containing information relating to real property sales prices, descriptions, characteristics, and other related information received from a private entity.” Therefore, we find to the extent any remaining information in Exhibit B relates to real property sales prices, descriptions, characteristics, and other related information that was provided to the district by private entities, it is confidential under section 552.149(a) of the Government Code. Conversely, to the extent the remaining information does not relate to real property sales prices, descriptions, characteristics, and other related information or was not provided to the district by private entities, it is not confidential under section 552.149(a) and it may not be withheld on that basis.

Section 552.103 of the Government Code provides, in relevant part:

(a) Information is excepted from [required public disclosure] if it is information relating to litigation of a civil or criminal nature to which the state or a political subdivision is or may be a party or to which an officer or employee of the state or a political subdivision, as a consequence of the person’s office or employment, is or may be a party.

(c) Information relating to litigation involving a governmental body or an officer or employee of a governmental body is excepted from disclosure under Subsection (a) only if the litigation is pending or reasonably anticipated on the date that the requestor applies to the officer for public information for access to or duplication of the information.

Gov’t Code § 552.103(a), (c). The governmental body claiming section 552.103 has the burden of providing relevant facts and documents sufficient to establish the applicability of section 552.103 to the information it seeks to withhold. To meet this burden, the governmental body must demonstrate: (1) litigation was pending or reasonably anticipated on the date of its receipt of the request for information, and (2) the information at issue is related to that litigation. See Univ. of Tex. Law Sch. v. Tex. Legal Found., 958 S.W.2d 479 (Tex. App.—Austin 1997, orig. proceeding); Heard v. Houston Post Co., 684 S.W.2d 210 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 1984, writ ref’d n.r.e.). Both elements of the test must be met in order for information to be excepted from disclosure under section 552.103. See Open Records Decision No. 551 at 4 (1990).

You state, and provide documentation showing, prior to the district’s receipt of the instant request, a lawsuit styled Calumet San Antonio Refining, LLC v. Bexar Appraisal District, Case No. 2015-CI-12665, was filed against the district in the 244th District Court of Bexar County, Texas. Therefore, we agree litigation was pending on the date the district received the present request for information. You also state the information at issue pertains to the substance of the lawsuit claims. Based on your representations and our review, we find the information at issue is related to the pending litigation.

We note, however, Exhibit C reveals the opposing party has seen or had access to the information at issue. The purpose of section 552.103 of the Government Code is to enable a governmental body to protect its position in litigation by forcing parties seeking information relating to the litigation to obtain such information through discovery procedures. See ORD 551 at 4-5. Thus, once the opposing party in pending litigation has seen or had access to information that is related to the litigation, there is no interest in withholding such information from public disclosure under section 552.103. See Open Records Decision Nos. 349 (1982), 320 (1982). Accordingly, the district may not withhold any of Exhibit C under section 552.103 of the Government Code.

In summary, to the extent any of the Exhibit B was provided by property owners in connection with an appraisal, the district must withhold such information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 22.27 of the Tax Code. To the extent any remaining information in Exhibit B relates to real property sales prices, descriptions, characteristics, and other related information that was provided to the district by private entities, the district must withhold such information under section 552.149(a) of the Government Code. The district must release any remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
