OR2016-26194

Dear Mr. Brown and Mr. West:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 635626.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received two requests for information pertaining to a specified incident and department policies regarding inmate medical treatment. The department's Office of the General Counsel (the "OGC") and Office of the Inspector General (the "OIG") have submitted separate briefs, as well as separate documents that each seeks to withhold from disclosure. The OIG states it does not possess information responsive to a portion of one of the requests.<sup>1</sup> The OIG claims the information <sup>1</sup>The Act does not require a governmental body to release information that did not exist when a request for information was received or to prepare new information in response to a request. See Econ. Opportunities Dev. Corp. v. Bustamante, 562 S.W.2d 266, 267-68 (Tex. Civ. App.—San Antonio 1978, writ dismissed); Open Records Decision Nos. 605 at 2 (1992), 452 at 3 (1986), 362 at 2 (1983).

it submitted is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.102, 552.108, 552.117, 552.1175, 552.134, and 552.147 of the Government Code. The OGC states it will release some information. The OGC claims the information it submitted is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.108, and 552.134 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exceptions and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.134 of the Government Code is applicable to information related to inmates of the department. Section 552.134(a) states that [e]xcept as provided by Subsection (b) or by Section 552.029 [of the Government Code], information obtained or maintained by the [department] is excepted from [required public disclosure] if it is information about an inmate who is confined in a facility operated by or under a contract with the department.

Gov't Code § 552.134(a). Section 552.029 of the Government Code provides, in part, that [n]otwithstanding Section . . . 552.134, the following information about an inmate who is confined in a facility operated by or under a contract with the [department] is subject to required disclosure under Section 552.021:

(8) basic information regarding the death of an inmate in custody, an incident involving the use of force, or an alleged crime involving the inmate.

Id. § 552.029(8). Upon review, we agree the submitted information constitutes information about an inmate for purposes of section 552.134. However, the submitted information pertains to an alleged crime involving the inmate. Thus, pursuant to section 552.029, the department must release basic information from the submitted information. Basic information includes the time and place of the incident, names of inmates and department officials directly involved, a brief narrative of the incident, a brief description of any injuries sustained, and information regarding criminal charges or disciplinary actions filed as a result of the incident. With the exception of basic information, which must be released, the department must withhold the submitted information under section 552.134 of the Government Code.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup>As we are able to make these determinations, we need not address your other arguments against disclosure of this information. We note basic information under section 552.029(8) corresponds to the basic front-page information that may not be withheld under section 552.108 of the Government Code. See Gov't Code § 552.108(c); Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177, 186-88 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976); Open Records

Decision No. 127 at 3-4 (1976). The information being released contains social security numbers. Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office. See Gov't Code § 552.147(b).
