Re: Request for the complete investigative reports for Case #12274318, #12101110, and #1138973; and all reports from January 2010 to the present involving named individual (ORR #W146018-111216)

Dear Mr. Kopp:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 644291.

After reviewing your arguments, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the requested information must be withheld from the requestor. A request to compile an individual's criminal history implicates this person's privacy. We have concluded such a compilation is highly embarrassing information and is generally not of legitimate concern to the public. Therefore, to the extent you maintain law enforcement records depicting the named individual as a suspect, arrestee, or criminal defendant, you must withhold the requested information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. However, information that refers to an individual solely as a victim, witness, or involved person is not a compilation of the individual's criminal history and may not be withheld under section 552.101 on that basis. Furthermore, the requested specified reports are not part of a compilation criminal history and do not implicate the person's privacy interest. We consider your assertion under section 552.108 of the Government Code for information that does not refer to the named person as an offender or that is specified in the request. In accordance with section 552.108(a)(2) you may withhold such information. However, you must release the basic information from such information pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code.

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/og/memorulings>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.
