Dear Mr. Evans:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 636847.

The Rains County Appraisal District (the "district"), which you represent, received two requests from the same requestor for information pertaining to Collins Motor Sports, LLC ("Collins"). You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.110 of the Government Code. You also state release of the submitted information may implicate the interests of Collins. Accordingly, you notified Collins of the request for information and of its right to submit arguments stating why its information should not be released. See Gov't Code § 552.305 (permitting interested third party to submit to attorney general reasons why requested information should not be released); Open Records Decision No. 542 (1990) (determining statutory predecessor to section 552.305 permits governmental body to rely on interested third party to raise and explain applicability of exception in certain circumstances). We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 23.123 of the Tax Code, which provides in relevant part:

(a) In this section:

(4) "Declaration" has the meaning given it in Section 23.122 of this code.

...

(6) "Statement" has the meaning given it in Section 23.122 of this code.

(b) Except as provided by this section, a declaration or statement filed with a chief appraiser or collector as required by Section 23.121 or Section 23.122 of this code is confidential and not open to public inspection. A declaration or statement and the information contained in either may not be disclosed to anyone except an employee of the appraisal office who appraises the property or to an employee of the county tax assessor-collector involved in the maintenance of the owner's escrow account.

(c) Information made confidential by this section may be disclosed:

(1) in a judicial or administrative proceeding pursuant to a lawful subpoena;

(2) to the person who filed the declaration or statement or to that person's representative authorized by the person in writing to receive the information;

(3) to the comptroller or an employee of the comptroller authorized by the comptroller to receive the information;

(4) to a collector or chief appraiser;

(5) to a district attorney, criminal district attorney or county attorney involved in the enforcement of a penalty imposed pursuant to Section 23.121 or Section 23.122;

(6) for statistical purposes if in a form that does not identify specific property or a specific property owner;

(7) if and to the extent that the information is required for inclusion in a public document or record that the appraisal or collection office is required by law to prepare or maintain; or

(8) to the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles for use by that department in auditing compliance of its licensees with appropriate provisions of applicable law.

Tax Code § 23.123(a)(4), (a)(6), (b), (c). To reiterate, section 23.123(a) provides the terms “declaration” and “statement” have the meanings given to those terms in section 23.122 of the Tax Code. We note that section 23.122(a)(5) of the Tax Code states “[d]eclaration” has the meaning given it in Section 23.121.” Id. § 23.122(a)(5). Section 23.121(a)(6) defines “declaration” as the Dealer’s Motor Vehicle Inventory Declaration form required by section 23.121. Id. § 23.121(a)(6), (f). Further, section 23.122(a)(9) of the Tax Code defines “statement” as the Dealer’s Motor Vehicle Inventory Tax Statement required by section 23.122. Id. § 23.122(a)(9), (e), (f). You indicate, and the information at issue reflects, the submitted information consists of a Dealer’s Motor Vehicle Inventory Declaration form and Dealer’s Motor Vehicle Inventory Tax Statements as defined by sections 23.121 and 23.122 that were submitted to the district pursuant to sections 23.121 and 23.122 of the Tax Code. Accordingly, we find the submitted information is confidential pursuant to section 23.123(b) of the Tax Code and must be withheld from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup>
