

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

January 26, 2017

Mr. Stephen Gates
First Assistant City Attorney
City of Midland
P. O. Box 1152
Midland, Texas 79701

OR2017-01814

Dear Mr. Gates:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 643194 (Midland ID# M019351-110716).

The City of Midland (the "city") received a request for the incident report and security video recordings pertaining to a specified incident. You state the city has released some information to the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note the city informed the requestor some of the responsive information was available on the city's website. Section 552.228 of the Government Code requires a governmental body to provide a requestor with a "suitable copy" of requested public information. Gov't Code § 552.228(a). We also note "[a] public information officer does not fulfill his or her duty under the Act by simply referring a requestor to a governmental body's website for requested public information." Open Records Decision No. 682 at 7 (2005). Instead, section 552.221 of the Government Code requires a governmental body "to either provide the information for inspection or duplication in its offices or to send copies of the information by first class United States mail." Id.; see Gov't Code § 552.221(b). Thus, the city must provide to the requestor access to or copies of the responsive information that is on the city's website. Nevertheless, we note a requestor may agree to accept information on a governmental body's website in fulfillment of a request for information under the Act. See ORD 682 at 7.

Section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if . . . release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime.” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). Generally, a governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706, 710 (Tex. 1977). You state the submitted information relates to a pending criminal investigation and prosecution. Based upon this representation, we conclude the release of the submitted information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177, 186-87 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559, 560-61 (Tex. 1976). Thus, section 552.108(a)(1) is applicable to the submitted information.

However, section 552.108(a)(1) does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov’t Code § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-87; Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information considered to be basic information). Accordingly, with the exception of basic information, which you state the city has released, the city may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General’s Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Cole Hutchison
Assistant Attorney General
