Assistant City Attorney
City of Fort Worth

OR2017-04904

Dear Ms. Winter:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 654586 (ORR# W058896).

The Fort Worth Police Department (the "department") received a request for the arrest report pertaining to a specified incident and a named individual. You state the department has released some information to the requestor. You claim that the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 58.007 of the Family Code. Juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997 are confidential under section 58.007. Fam. Code § 58.007(c). For purposes of section 58.007(c), "child" means a person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age. See Fam. Code § 51.02(2). The relevant language of section 58.007 reads as follows:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

- (1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;
- (2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and
- (3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

(e) Law enforcement records and files concerning a child may be inspected or copied by a juvenile justice agency as that term is defined by Section 58.101, a criminal justice agency as that term is defined by Section 411.082, Government Code, the child, and the child's parent or guardian.

Fam. Code § 58.007(c), (e). The submitted information involves a juvenile engaged in delinquent conduct that occurred after September 1, 1997. See id. § 51.03 (defining "delinquent conduct" for purposes of Fam. Code § 58.007). Therefore, the submitted information is subject to section 58.007.

We note, however, that the requestor is an examiner at the Federal Bureau of Investigation's National Instant Criminal Background Check System ("NICS") and is seeking the requested information in his official capacity. Under section 58.007(e), "[l]aw enforcement records and files concerning a child may be inspected . . . by . . . a criminal justice agency as that term is defined by Section 411.082, Government Code[.]" Id. § 58.007(e). Section 411.082 of the Government Code defines a "criminal justice agency" as including "a federal or state agency that is engaged in the administration of criminal justice under a statute or executive order and that allocates a substantial portion of its annual budget to the administration of criminal justice" and "a nongovernmental railroad or campus police department that has obtained an originating agency identifier from the Federal Bureau of Investigation." Gov't Code § 411.082(3). Thus, to the extent that this particular requestor is requesting the information on behalf of a criminal justice agency, as provided by section 58.007(e) of the Family Code, then the requestor has a right of access under section 58.007(e) to the submitted information. Otherwise, as it does not appear that any of the other exceptions in section 58.007 apply, the submitted information is confidential under section 58.007 and excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
