Dear Mr. Miller:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 657119 (TDCJ ID# ZT0006).

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for minute sheets and post-release transmittal votes related to conditions imposed on a named department parolee. You state you have released some information to the requestor. You claim some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 508.313(a) of the Government Code, which reads as follows:

(a) All information obtained and maintained [by the department], including a victim protest letter or other correspondence, a victim impact statement, a list of inmates eligible for release on parole, and an arrest record of an inmate, is confidential and privileged if the information relates to:

(1) an inmate of the institutional division [of the department] subject to release on parole, release to mandatory supervision, or executive clemency;

(2) a releasee; or

(3) a person directly identified in any proposed plan of release for an inmate.

Id. § 508.313(a); see id. § 508.001(9) (“releasee” means a person released on parole or to mandatory supervision). You state the information at issue consists of records of a parolee that are subject to section 508.313 of the Government Code. We understand the requestor is not authorized to obtain this information under section 508.313(c). See id. § 508.313(c). Further, there is no indication this information is made public under chapter 62 of the Code of Criminal Procedure or section 552.029 of the Government Code. See id. § 508.313(e), (f). Accordingly, the department must withhold the information you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 508.313 of the Government Code. As you raise no further exceptions to disclosure, the department must release the remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.
