OR2017-11459

Dear Ms. Freeland:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 659460 (PIR #17-1672).

The Texas Department of Public Safety (the "department") received a request for a specified bid tabulation sheet. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.104 of the Government Code. We understand the release of this information may implicate the proprietary interests of ACO Remodeling & Construction, Inc. Accordingly, you provide documentation showing you notified the interested third party of the request for information and of its right to submit arguments to this office as to why the information at issue should not be released. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d); see also Open Records Decision No. 542 (1990) (statutory predecessor to section 552.305 permits governmental body to rely on interested third party to raise and explain applicability of exception in the Act in certain circumstances). We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.104(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information that, if released, would give advantage to a competitor or bidder." Gov't Code § 552.104(a). The "test under section 552.104 is whether knowing another bidder's [or competitor's information] would be an advantage, not whether it would be a decisive advantage." Boeing Co. v. Paxton, 466 S.W.3d 831 (Tex. 2015). We understand the submitted information pertains to a competitive bidding situation. In addition, you state the release of the requested information would harm the department's purchasing interests and weaken the department's bargaining position as it deliberates options and negotiates best value now and in the future.

After reviewing the submitted information and considering your arguments, we find the department has established the release of the submitted information would give an advantage to a competitor or bidder. Accordingly, we conclude the department may withhold the submitted information under section 552.104(a) of the Government Code.

Finally, you ask this office to issue a previous determination permitting the department to withhold information under section 552.104 of the Government Code without the necessity of requesting a decision under section 552.301 of the Government Code. See Gov't Code § 552.301(a) (allowing a governmental body to withhold information subject to previous determination); Open Records Decision No. 673 (2001) (listing elements of second type of previous determination under section 552.301(a) of the Government Code). We decline to issue such a previous determination at this time. Accordingly, this letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl\_ruling\_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Jahanna Ward
Assistant Attorney General
