Secretary of the Senate

P.O. Box 12068

OR2017-11597

Dear Ms. Spaw:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 659471.

The Texas Senate (the "senate") received a request for all materials pertaining to a named senator and a specified senate bill during a specified time period. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101, 552.106, 552.107, and 552.111 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

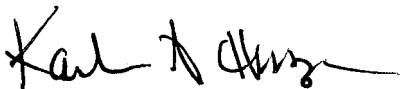

Section 552.106(a) of the Government Code excepts from required public disclosure "[a] draft or working paper involved in the preparation of proposed legislation[.]" Gov't Code § 552.106(a). Section 552.106(a) ordinarily applies only to persons with a responsibility to prepare information and proposals for a legislative body. See Open Records Decision No. 460 at 1 (1987). The purpose of this exception is to encourage frank discussion on policy matters between the subordinates or advisors of a legislative body and the members of the legislative body. Therefore, section 552.106 encompasses only policy judgments, recommendations, and proposals involved in the preparation of proposed legislation and does not except purely factual information from public disclosure. Id. at 2. However, a comparison or analysis of factual information prepared to support proposed legislation is within the ambit of section 552.106. Id.

You assert the submitted information reveals advice, opinions, recommendations, and policy judgments made in the preparation of proposed legislation. You state the submitted information consists of bill analyses, working papers, and communications created by legislative staff for the purpose of enacting legislation. You further state the submitted information has not been made public or distributed to any person outside of certain legislators and legislative staff in the senate. Upon review, we find you have established the submitted information constitutes advice, opinion, analysis, and recommendation regarding proposed legislation. Therefore, the senate may withhold the submitted information under section 552.106 of the Government Code.¹

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.
