Ms. Jena Abel

Texas Board of Nursing
333 Guadalupe Street, Suite 3-460
Austin, Texas 78701

OR2017-12600

Dear Ms. Abel:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 661107.

The Texas Board of Nursing (the "board") received a request for all information pertaining to a named individual. You state the board will withhold social security numbers under section 552.147(b) of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> You state the board has released some information. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>2</sup>

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't

<sup>1</sup>Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office. See Gov't Code § 552.147(b).

<sup>2</sup>We assume that the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

Code § 552.101. This exception encompasses information protected by other statutes, such as section 301.466 of the Occupations Code, which provides, in relevant part:

(a) A complaint and investigation concerning a nurse under this subchapter and all information and material compiled by the board in connection with the complaint and investigation, and the information described by Subsection (d) are:

(1) confidential and not subject to disclosure under [the Act]; and

(2) not subject to disclosure, discovery, subpoena, or other means of legal compulsion for release to anyone other than the board or board employee or agent involved in license holder discipline.

(b) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), information regarding a complaint and an investigation may be disclosed to:

(1) a person involved with the board in a disciplinary action against the nurse;

(2) a nursing licensing or disciplinary board in another jurisdiction;

(3) a peer assistance program approved by the board under Chapter 467, Health and Safety Code;

(4) a law enforcement agency; or

(5) a person engaged in bona fide research, if all information identifying a specific individual has been deleted.

(c) The filing of formal charges against a nurse by the board, the nature of those charges, disciplinary proceedings of the board, and final disciplinary actions, including warnings and reprimands, by the board are not confidential and are subject to disclosure in accordance with [the Act].

Occ. Code § 301.466(a)-(c). You inform us Attachment C consists of information that was created or compiled by the board in connection with a board investigation concerning the named nurse licensee. You state the information at issue does not fall into any of the categories of information that are subject to disclosure under section 301.466(c). Based on your representations and our review, we agree the information at issue is confidential under section 301.466(a). Further, we find the requestor is not entitled to receive this information under section 301.466(b). Accordingly, we conclude the board must withhold Attachment

C under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 301.466(a)(1) of the Occupations Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 301.207 of the Occupations Code. Section 301.207 provides as follows:

The following information that a person submits to the board for a petition for a declaratory order of eligibility for a license or for an application for an initial license or a license renewal under this chapter is confidential to the same extent information collected on a nurse as part of an investigation of a complaint is confidential under Section 301.466:

- (1) information, including diagnosis and treatment, regarding a person's physical or mental condition, intemperate use of drugs or alcohol, or chemical dependency;
- (2) information regarding a person's criminal history; and
- (3) any other information in the petition for declaratory order of eligibility.

Id. § 301.207. You state the information you have marked is confidential under section 301.207. Upon review, we agree the information you have marked is confidential under section 301.207 of the Occupations Code. Further, we find the requestor is not entitled to receive this information under section 301.466(b), and the information at issue does not fall under section 301.466(c). Therefore, we conclude the board must withhold the information you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 301.207 of the Occupations Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). Under the common-law right of privacy, an individual has a right to be free from the publicizing of private affairs in which the public has no legitimate concern. Id. at 682. The court of appeals has concluded public citizens' dates of birth are protected by common-law privacy pursuant to section 552.101. Paxton v. City of Dallas, No. 03-13-00546-CV, 2015 WL 3394061, at *3 (Tex. App.—Austin May 22, 2015, pet. denied) (mem. op.). Thus, the board must withhold the date of birth you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

In summary, the board must withhold Attachment C under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 301.466(a)(1) of the Occupations Code. The board must withhold the information you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 301.207 of the Occupations Code. The board must withhold the date of birth you have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. The remaining information must be released.
