The City of Mesquite (the "city") received a request for information pertaining to a specified car collision. You state you will redact dates of birth pursuant to the previous determination issued to the city in Open Records Letter No. 2015-24970 (2015).¹ You claim some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.130 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 of the Government Code encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy, which protects information that is (1) highly intimate or embarrassing, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) not of legitimate concern to the public. *Indus. ¹Open Records Letter No. 2015-24970 is a previous determination issued to the city authorizing the city to withhold dates of birth of living individuals under 552.101 in conjunction with common-law privacy without requesting a decision from this office. See Gov't Code § 552.301; Open Records Decision No. 673 (2001) (listing elements of second type of previous determination under section 552.301(a) of the Government Code).

test must be satisfied. Id. at 681-82. Types of information considered intimate and embarrassing by the Texas Supreme Court are delineated in Industrial Foundation. Id. at 683. Upon review, we find some of the submitted information satisfies the standard articulated by the Texas Supreme Court in Industrial Foundation. Accordingly, the city must withhold the information you have marked and the additional information we have marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

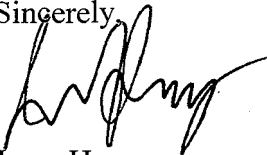

Section 552.130 of the Government Code provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator's license, driver's license, motor vehicle title or registration, or personal identification document issued by an agency of this state or another state or country is excepted from public release. See Gov't Code § 552.130(a). Upon review, we find the city must generally withhold the motor vehicle record information you have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code.

In summary, the city must withhold the marked information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy and the marked motor vehicle record information under section 552.130 of the Government Code. The remaining information must be released.²
