OR2017-13886

Dear Ms. Pemberton:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 669631 (Ref. No. W022423).

The Killeen Police Department (the "department") received a request for all information regarding the specified arrest of a named individual. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 58.007 of the Family Code, which makes confidential juvenile law enforcement records relating to conduct that occurred on or after September 1, 1997. See Fam. Code § 58.007(c). Section 58.007 provides in relevant part the following:

(c) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records and files concerning a child and information stored, by electronic means or otherwise, concerning the child from which a record or file could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

- (1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult files and records;
- (2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as records or files relating to adults, be accessible under controls that are separate and distinct from controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subchapters B, D, and E.

(e) Law enforcement records and files concerning a child may be inspected or copied by a juvenile justice agency as that term is defined by Section 58.101. a criminal justice agency as that term is defined by Section 411.082, Government Code, the child, and the child's parent or guardian.

Id. § 58.007(c), (e). Upon review, we find the submitted information involves alleged juvenile delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision that occurred after September 1, 1997. See id. §§ 51.02(2) (for purposes of section 58.007(c), "child" means person who is ten years of age or older and under seventeen years of age when conduct occurred), .03(a)-(b) (defining "delinquent conduct" and "conduct indicating a need for supervision"). Although the requestor is a recruiter for the United States Army (the "Army") and the named individual has provided the Army with a signed authorization for the release of her information, the named individual is not the juvenile offender at issue, so as to implicate the access provided in section 58.007(e) of the Family Code. See id. § 58.007(e). Therefore, the submitted information is confidential under section 58.007(c) of the Family Code.

Nevertheless, we note the United States Department of Defense (the "DoD") is authorized to perform background investigations of persons seeking acceptance or retention in the armed services. See 5 U.S.C. § 9101(b)(1)(C); see also id. § 9101(a)(6)(A) (DoD is covered agency for purposes of section 9101). The Army has a right to the criminal history record information of state and local criminal justice agencies when the named individual has provided the Army with consent for the release of the criminal history record information. See id. § 9101(b)(1), (c); see also 10 U.S.C. § 111(b)(6) (DoD includes Department of the Army). Criminal history record information is defined as "information collected by criminal justice agencies on individuals consisting of identifiable descriptions and notations of arrests, indictments, informations, or other formal criminal charges, and any disposition arising therefrom, sentencing, correction supervision, and release" but does not include "identification information such as fingerprint records to the extent that such information does not indicate involvement in the criminal justice system" or "records of a State or locality sealed pursuant to law from access by State and local criminal justice agencies of that State or locality." 5 U.S.C. § 9101(a)(2).

Federal law provides the Army's right of access to criminal history record information preempts state confidentiality provisions. Id. § 9101(b)(4) (section 9101 "shall apply notwithstanding any other provision of law . . . of any State"). The Army's right of access under federal law preempts the state confidentiality provision you claim. See English v. General Elec. Co., 496 U.S. 72, 79 (1990) (state law is preempted to extent it actually conflicts with federal law); see also La. Pub. Serv. Comm'n v. FCC, 476 U.S. 355, 369 (1986) (federal agency acting within scope of its congressionally delegated authority may preempt state regulation). However, federal law also provides the Army's right of access is contingent on the request being made for eligibility or retention purposes, and on receiving written consent from the individual under investigation for the release of such CHRI. See 5 U.S.C. § 9101(c).

The requestor states the request for information was made for enlistment eligibility purposes, and the individual under investigation has provided the Army with a signed authorization for the release of the information at issue. Accordingly, the city must release the criminal history record information of the named individual from the submitted information, but must withhold the remaining information in this report under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.007(c) of the Family Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
