Ms. Kristi Godden
Counsel for Edinburg Consolidated Independent School District
O'Hanlon, McCollom & Demerath
808 West Avenue
Austin, Texas 78701

OR2017-17370

Dear Ms. Godden:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 668889 (PIR# E000111 & E000112).

The Edinburg Consolidated Independent School District (the "district"), which you represent, received two requests from different requestors for a specified police report. You state you are releasing most of the requested information. You state you will redact information pursuant to sections 552.130(c) and 552.136(c) of the Government Code.<sup>1</sup> You also state the district will redact the dates of birth of public citizens pursuant to Open Records Letter No.

<sup>1</sup>Section 552.130(c) of the Government Code allows a governmental body to redact the information described in section 552.130(a) without the necessity of seeking a decision from the attorney general. See Gov't Code § 552.130(c). If a governmental body redacts such information, it must notify the requestor in accordance with section 552.130(e). See id. § 552.130(d), (e). Section 552.136 of the Government Code permits a governmental body to withhold the information described in section 552.136(b) without the necessity of seeking a decision from this office. See id. § 552.136(c). If a governmental body redacts such information, it must notify the requestor in accordance with section 552.136(e). See id. § 552.136(d), (e). The first requestor has a special right of access under section 552.023 of the Government Code to information that would otherwise be withheld to protect his privacy. See id. § 552.023(a) (person or person's authorized representative has special right of access to information held by governmental body that relates to person and that is protected from public disclosure by laws intended to protect person's privacy interests); Open Records Decision No. 481 at 4 (1987) (privacy theories not implicated when individual requests information concerning himself).

2016-11758 (2016).<sup>2</sup> You claim a portion of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy, which protects information that is (1) highly intimate or embarrassing, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) not of legitimate concern to the public. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). To demonstrate the applicability of common-law privacy, both prongs of this test must be satisfied. Id. at 681-82. Types of information considered intimate and embarrassing by the Texas Supreme Court are delineated in Industrial Foundation. Id. at 683. This office has found personal financial information not relating to a financial transaction between an individual and a governmental body is generally highly intimate or embarrassing. See Open Records Decision No. 600 (1992) (personal financial information includes choice of a particular insurance carrier). We note the first requestor has a right of access to his own private information. See Gov’t Code § 552.023(a); ORD 481 at 4. Upon review, we find the information the district marked satisfies the standard articulated by the Texas Supreme Court in Industrial Foundation. Therefore, the district must withhold the information you marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. The district must release the remaining information.

You ask this office to issue a previous determination permitting the district to withhold the name of an individual’s chosen insurance company within district police reports under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy without requesting an opinion from this office. See Gov’t Code § 552.301(a) (allowing governmental body to withhold information subject to previous determination); ORD 673. We decline to issue such a previous determination at this time. Accordingly, this letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at <http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/>

<sup>2</sup>Open Records Letter No. 2016-11758 is a previous determination authorizing the district to withhold the dates of birth of living individuals under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy without requesting a decision from this office. See Gov’t Code § 552.301(a); Open Records Decision No. 673 (2001) (listing elements of second type of previous determination under section 552.301(a) of the Government Code).
