Ms. Tracey Beaver

Texas Department of Insurance

Dear Ms. Beaver:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 669924 (TDI# 184464).

The Texas Department of Insurance (the "department") received a request for a copy of two specified records. The department does not take a position as to whether the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under the Act. However, you state release of the submitted information may implicate the proprietary interests of Redpoint County Mutual Insurance Company ("Redpoint"). Accordingly, you state, and provide documentation showing, you notified Redpoint of the request for information and of its right to submit arguments to this office as to why the information at issue should not be released. See Gov't Code § 552.305(d); see also Open Records Decision No. 542 (1990) (statutory predecessor to section 552.305 permits governmental body to rely on interested third party to raise and explain applicability of exception in the Act in certain circumstances). We have received comments from Redpoint. We have considered the submitted arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

Redpoint seeks to withhold the submitted information under section 552.104(a) of the Government Code. Section 552.104(a) excepts from disclosure "information that, if released, would give advantage to a competitor or bidder." Gov't Code § 552.104(a). A private third party may invoke this exception. Boeing Co. v. Paxton, 466 S.W.3d 831 (Tex. 2015). The "test under section 552.104 is whether knowing another bidder's [or competitor's information] would be an advantage, not whether it would be a decisive advantage." Id. at 841. Redpoint states it has competitors. In addition, Redpoint states release of the submitted information would provide an advantage to its competitors. After review of the submitted information and consideration of the arguments, we find Redpoint has established the release of the submitted information would give advantage to a competitor or bidder. Thus, we conclude the department may withhold the submitted information under section 552.104(a).¹

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.
