OR2017-18800

Dear Ms. Betts:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 672820 (PIR# 17-4094).

The Department of Public Safety (the "department") received two requests from two requestors for nine categories of information related to a specified vehicle accident. You state you have released some information. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.107 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.¹

Section 552.107(2) of the Government Code provides information is excepted from disclosure if "a court by order has prohibited disclosure of the information." Gov't Code § 552.107(2). Article 18.20 of the Code of Criminal Procedure permits a court, on application by a prosecutor, to issue an order authorizing the interception of wire, oral, or electronic communications; the installation or use of a pen register, ESN reader, trap and trace device, mobile tracking device, or similar equipment; or the disclosure of a stored ¹We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

communication, information subject to an administrative subpoena, or information subject to access under article 18.21 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. See Crim. Proc. Code art. 18.20, §§ 6, 9; see also id. § 1 (defining terms). Section 11 of article 18.20 states “[t]he judge shall seal each application made and order granted under this article.” Id. § 11. Article 18.21 of the Code of Criminal Procedure permits a court, on application by a prosecutor, to issue an order authorizing the installation and use of a pen register, ESN reader, trap and trace device, or similar equipment. See id. art. 18.21, § 2; see also id. § 1 (defining terms). Article 18.21 also permits a court to issue an order authorizing the disclosure of contents, records, or other information of a wire or electronic communication. See id. § 5. Section 2 of article 18.21 states the court “shall seal an application and order granted under this article.” Id. § 2(g). In this instance, a portion of the submitted information consists of court orders granted under articles 18.20 and 18.21. The orders reflect they are filed under seal. As the documents at issue have been sealed by a court pursuant to articles 18.20 and 18.21, we conclude the department must withhold the information you marked under section 552.107(2) of the Government Code.

Section 552.108(a) excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if: (1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime.” Gov’t Code § 552.108(a)(1). Generally, a governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must explain how and why the release of the requested information would interfere with law enforcement. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). You state the remaining information relates to a pending criminal investigation. Based upon this representation, we conclude that the release of the remaining information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See Houston Chronicle Publ’g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref’d n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976).

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Gov’t Code § 552.108(c). Section 552.108(c) refers to the basic “front-page” information held to be public in Houston Chronicle. See 531 S.W.2d at 186-187; see also Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information considered to be basic information). Thus, with the exception of the basic information, the department may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

In summary, the department must withhold the information you marked under section 552.107(2) of the Government Code. With the exception of the basic information, the department may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839.
