Dear Ms. Kopp:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 673275 (COSA File No.: W171937).

The City of San Antonio (the "city") received a request for all records related to a specified incident. You state you will release some information. You state the city will redact certain information pursuant to sections 552.136(c) and 552.147(b) of the Government Code and dates of birth pursuant to Open Records Letter No. 2016-08566 (2016).<sup>1</sup> You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't <sup>1</sup>Section 552.136 of the Government Code permits a governmental body to withhold the information described in section 552.136(b) without the necessity of seeking a decision from this office. See id. § 552.136(c). If a governmental body redacts such information, it must notify the requestor in accordance with section 552.136(e). See id. § 552.136(d), (e). Section 552.147(b) of the Government Code authorizes a governmental body to redact a living person's social security number from public release without the necessity of requesting a decision from this office. See id. § 552.147(b). Open Records Letter No. 2016-08566 is a previous determination issued to the city authorizing it to withhold private citizens' dates of birth under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy without requesting a decision from this office.

Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 of the Government Code encompasses information protected by other statutes, including the federal Driver's Privacy Protection Act of 1994 (the "DPPA"), section 2721 of title 18 of the United States Code. Section 2721 provides, in part:

(a) In general.—A State department of motor vehicles, and any officer, employee, or contractor thereof, shall not knowingly disclose or otherwise make available to any person or entity:

(1) personal information, as defined in 18 U.S.C. 2725(3), about any individual obtained by the department in connection with a motor vehicle record, except as provided in subsection (b) of this section[.]

(b) Permissible uses.—Personal information referred to in subsection (a) . . . may be disclosed as follows:

(1) For use by any government agency . . . in carrying out its functions[.]

(c) Resale or redisclosure.—An authorized recipient of personal information (except a recipient under subsection (b)(11) or (12)) may resell or redisclose the information only for a use permitted under subsection (b) (but not for uses under subsection (b)(11) or (12)). . . . Any authorized recipient (except a recipient under subsection (b)(11)) that resells or rediscloses personal information covered by this chapter must keep for a period of 5 years records identifying each person or entity that receives information and the permitted purpose for which the information will be used and must make such records available to the motor vehicle department upon request.

18 U.S.C. § 2721(a)(1), (b)(1), (c). The DPPA defines "motor vehicle record," in relevant part, as "any record that pertains to a motor vehicle operator's permit . . . issued by a department of motor vehicles[.]" Id. § 2725(1). Section 2725 also defines personal information as "information that identifies an individual, including an individual's photograph, social security number, driver identification number, name, address (but not the 5-digit zip code), telephone number, and medical or disability information, but does not include information on vehicular accidents, driving violations, and driver's status." See id. § 2725(3).

You assert some of the submitted information contains personal information obtained from the Texas Department of Public Safety ("DPS") that is protected under the DPPA. We note this office has concluded that the DPPA applies to information in the possession of DPS. Attorney General Opinion JC-0499 at 1 (2002). You explain the San Antonio Police Department (the “department”) obtained the personal information to assist the city in carrying out its functions with regard to law enforcement.

Based upon your representations and our review, we find the department, in obtaining personal information from DPS to assist the city in carrying out its law enforcement functions, is an authorized recipient of personal information for purposes of section 2721(c). See 18 U.S.C. § 2721(b)(1) (providing that personal information may be disclosed by a state department of motor vehicles to any entity acting on behalf of a Federal, State, or local agency in carrying out its functions). Therefore, we conclude the information we have marked is personal information obtained from DPS by an authorized recipient and is confidential under section 2721 of title 18 of the United States Code. However, an authorized recipient of personal information for purposes of section 2721(c) may only resell or redisclose the information for a use permitted under subsection (b), but not for uses under subsections (b)(11) or (b)(12). See id. § 2721(c). Section 2721(b)(13) provides for the permissible release of personal information subject to the DPPA if the requestor demonstrates he has obtained the written consent of the individual to whom the information pertains. See id. § 2721(b)(13). In this instance, the requestor is the authorized representative of one of the individuals to whom the information pertains. Therefore, the city has the discretion to release the information at issue pertaining to the requestor’s client pursuant to subsections 2721(c) and (b)(13) of title 18 of the United States Code. See id. § 2721 (b)(13), (c). Otherwise the city must withhold the information pertaining to the requestor’s client at issue under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 2721 of title 18 of the United States Code. In either case, as we have no indication that release of the remaining information at issue would be for a use permitted under section 2721(b), we conclude the city must withhold the information pertaining to other individuals, which we marked, under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 2721(a) of title 18 of the United States Code. See id. § 2721 (a)(1). However, we find no portion of the remaining information consists of personal information obtained from the DPS and it may not be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that basis.

In summary, the marked personal information must generally be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 2721(a) of title 18 of the United States Code, but the city has the discretion to release the marked information pertaining to the requestor’s client pursuant to subsections 2721(c) and (b)(13) of title 18 of the United States Code. The remaining information must be released.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup>We note the requestor has a right of access to some of the information being released. See Gov’t Code § 552.023(a); Open Records Decision No. 481 at 4 (1987) (privacy theories not implicated when individuals request information concerning themselves). Thus, the city must again seek a decision from this office if it receives another request for the same information from another requestor.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
