Dear Mr. Bissar:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 673423.

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received a request for information pertaining to the requestor's incarceration.¹ You state you have released some information. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.134 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't ¹We note the department sought and received clarification of the information requested. See Gov't Code § 552.222 (providing if request for information is unclear, governmental body may ask requestor to clarify request); see also City of Dallas v. Abbott, 304 S.W.3d 380, 387 (Tex. 2010) (holding that when a governmental entity, acting in good faith, requests clarification or narrowing of an unclear or over-broad request for public information, the ten-day period to request an attorney general ruling is measured from the date the request is clarified or narrowed).

Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 508.313(a) of the Government Code, which reads as follows:

(a) All information obtained and maintained [by the department], including a victim protest letter or other correspondence, a victim impact statement, a list of inmates eligible for release on parole, and an arrest record of an inmate, is confidential and privileged if the information relates to:

(1) an inmate of the institutional division [of the department] subject to release on parole, release to mandatory supervision, or executive clemency;

(2) a releasee; or

(3) a person directly identified in any proposed plan of release for an inmate.

Id. § 508.313(a); see id. § 508.001(9) (“releasee” means a person released on parole or to mandatory supervision). The department states the submitted information consists of the requestor’s parole file, which is subject to section 508.313 of the Government Code. We understand the requestor is not authorized to obtain this information under section 508.313(c). See id. § 508.313(c). Further, there is no indication this information is made public under chapter 62 of the Code of Criminal Procedure or section 552.029 of the Government Code. See id. § 508.313(e), (f). Accordingly, the department must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 508.313 of the Government Code.²

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at <http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/> ²We note this ruling does not affect a patient’s right to access his or her mental health records from the professional who provided treatment under chapter 611 of the Health and Safety Code. See Health & Safety Code §§ 611.004, .0045; cf. Abbott v. Tex. State Bd. of Pharmacy, 391 S.W.3d 253 (Tex. App.—Austin 2012, no pet.) (Medical Practice Act, subtitle B of title 3 of the Occupations Code, does not provide patient general right of access to his or her medical records from governmental body responding to request for information under the Public Information Act). As our ruling is dispositive, we need not address your remaining argument against disclosure.
