Ms. Jessica Vu
Public Information Coordinator
Office of the Governor
P.O. Box 12428

OR2017-20369

Dear Ms. Vu:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 674742 (OOG ID #17-234).

The Office of the Governor (the "governor's office") received a request for certain information relating to bill signing ceremonies. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.106 and 552.111 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.111 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[a]n interagency or intraagency memorandum or letter that would not be available by law to a party in litigation with the agency[.]" Gov't Code § 552.111. This exception encompasses the deliberative process privilege. See Open Records Decision No. 615 at 2 (1993). The purpose of section 552.111 is to protect advice, opinion, and recommendation in the decisional process and to encourage open and frank discussion in the deliberative process. See Austin v. City of San Antonio, 630 S.W.2d 391, 394 (Tex. App.—San Antonio 1982, writ ref'd n.r.e.); Open Records Decision No. 538 at 1-2 (1990).

In Open Records Decision No. 615, we determined section 552.111 excepts from disclosure only those internal communications that consist of advice, recommendations, opinions, and other material reflecting the policymaking processes of the governmental body. See ORD 615 at 5. A governmental body's policymaking functions do not encompass routine internal administrative or personnel matters, and disclosure of information about such matters will not inhibit free discussion of policy issues among agency personnel. Id.; see also City of Garland v. Dallas Morning News, 22 S.W.3d 351, 364 (Tex. 2000) (section 552.111 not applicable to personnel-related communications that did not involve policymaking). A governmental body's policymaking functions include administrative and personnel matters of broad scope that affect the governmental body's policy mission. See Open Records Decision No. 631 at 3 (1995). Further, section 552.111 does not protect facts and written observations of facts and events severable from advice, opinions, and recommendations. Arlington Indep. Sch. Dist. v. Tex. Attorney Gen., 37 S.W.3d 152, 157 (Tex. App.—Austin 2001, no pet.); see ORD 615 at 5. But if factual information is so inextricably intertwined with material involving advice, opinion, or recommendation as to make severance of the factual data impractical, section 552.111 protects the factual information. See Open Records Decision No. 313 at 3 (1982).

You state the submitted information consists of privileged communications between the governor's office's policy directors, analysts, and employees. You further state the communications "reflect advice, recommendations, and opinions regarding ongoing policy matters, on whether a ceremonial bill signing should occur and on which individuals should be included in such events." Based on these representations and our review of the information at issue, we find the governor's office has demonstrated some of the information at issue consists of advice, opinions, or recommendations on the policymaking matters of the governor's office. Thus, the governor's office may withhold the information we have marked under section 552.111 of the Government Code. However, we find you have failed to demonstrate the remaining information reveals advice, opinions, or recommendations on the policymaking matters of the governor's office. Accordingly, the governor's office may not withhold any portion of the remaining information at issue under section 552.111 of the Government Code.

Section 552.106 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "[a] draft or working paper involved in the preparation of proposed legislation" and "[a]n internal bill analysis or working paper prepared by the governor's office for the purpose of evaluating proposed legislation." Gov't Code § 552.106(a)-(b). We note section 552.106(b) applies to information created or used by employees of the governor's office for the purpose of evaluating proposed legislation. The purpose of section 552.106 is to encourage frank discussion on policy matters between the subordinates or advisors of a legislative body and the members of the legislative body. See ORD 615 at 2. Therefore, section 552.106 is applicable only to the policy judgments, recommendations, and proposals of persons who are involved in the preparation or evaluation of proposed legislation and who have an official responsibility to provide such information to members of the legislative body. See id. at 1; see also Open Records Decision No. 429 at 5 (1985) (statutory predecessor to section 552.106 not applicable to information relating to governmental entity's efforts to persuade other governmental entities to enact particular ordinances). Upon review, we find you have failed to demonstrate the remaining information constitutes a draft or working paper involved in the preparation of proposed legislation. Further, you have failed to demonstrate this information constitutes an internal bill analysis or working paper prepared by the governor's office for the purposes of evaluating proposed legislation. Therefore, we conclude the governor's office may not withhold any of the remaining information under section 552.106 of the Government Code.

In summary, the governor's office may withhold the information we have marked under section 552.111 of the Government Code. The governor's office must release the remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
