Dear Ms. Ellison:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 676248 (Fiske F062617).

The Houston Independent School District (the "district") received a request for information pertaining to the review of a specified request for proposals. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.104 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.104(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information that, if released, would give advantage to a competitor or bidder." Gov't Code § 552.104(a). The "test under section 552.104 is whether knowing another bidder's [or competitor's information] would be an advantage, not whether it would be a decisive advantage." *Boeing Co. v. bidding situation and negotiations are ongoing. You state release of the submitted information would interfere with the district's bargaining position. Thus, we conclude the district may withhold the submitted information under section 552.104(a) of the Government Code.
