Dear Ms. Harden:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 675617 (PIR No. 17-47131).

The Office of the Attorney General (the "OAG") received a request for complaints involving a named individual during a specified time period and complaints alleging the named individual committed specified types of offenses. The OAG states it released basic information in accordance with section 552.108(c) of the Government Code. See Gov't Code § 552.108(c). The OAG claims the remaining requested information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the claimed exception and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>1</sup>

Section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information concerning an investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication. See id. § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that concluded in a final result <sup>1</sup>We assume the representative sample of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A) (governmental body must provide comments explaining why exceptions raised should apply to information requested). The OAG states the information at issue pertains to a concluded criminal investigation by the OAG's Criminal Investigations Division. The OAG explains the criminal investigation is closed and no charges were filed. Based on these representations and our review, we agree section 552.108(a)(2) is applicable to the information at issue. Accordingly, the OAG may withhold the information at issue under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
