

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

October 18, 2017

Mr. Justin Pruitt
Assistant City Attorney
City of Lubbock
P.O. Box 2000
Lubbock, Texas 79457

OR2017-23884

Dear Mr. Pruitt:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 681739 (File No. 681739).

The City of Lubbock (the "city") received a request for a specified report pertaining to a specified case. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses section 411.153(a) of the Government Code, which provides "[a] DNA record stored in the DNA database is confidential and is not subject to disclosure under the [Act]." Gov't Code § 411.153(a). A "DNA record" means the results of a forensic DNA analysis performed by a DNA laboratory. See id. § 411.141(6)-(7). "Forensic analysis" is defined as "a medical, chemical, toxicologic, ballistic, or other expert examination or test performed on physical evidence, including DNA evidence, for the purpose of determining the connection of the evidence to a criminal action." Crim. Proc. Code art. 38.35(4); see also Gov't Code § 411.141(10) ("forensic analysis" has meaning assigned by article 38.35). A "DNA database" means "one or more databases that contain forensic DNA records maintained by the director of [the Department of Public Safety ("DPS)]." Gov't Code § 411.141(5); see id. § 411.001(3).

The director of DPS is required to establish certain procedures for DNA laboratories. See id. §§ 411.142(h) (requiring director establish standards for DNA analysis), .144(a). Section 411.144 of the Government Code provides a DNA laboratory conducting a forensic DNA analysis under subchapter G of chapter 411 must comply with subchapter G and the rules adopted under subchapter G. See id. § 411.144(d); 37 T.A.C. §§ 28.91, .92 (describing minimum standards by which forensic DNA laboratory must abide); see also Gov't Code § 411.147(b).

You state the submitted information consists of the results of forensic DNA analyses performed by a DNA laboratory in accordance with DPS regulations. However, upon review, we find the information at issue does not constitute DNA records relating to DNA analyses of samples collected under subchapter G of chapter 411 of the Government Code. Accordingly, the city may not withhold the information at issue under section 552.101 of the Government Code on the basis of section 411.153 of the Government Code. As you raise to further exceptions to disclosure, the submitted information must be released.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
