Dear Ms. Henry:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 681365 (PIR No. CHAS080917).

The Plano Police Department (the "department") received a request for all information regarding a specified case involving a named individual. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses information protected by other statutes. Section 261.201 of the Family Code provides, in part, as follows:

(a) [T]he following information is confidential, is not subject to public release under Chapter 552, Government Code, and may be disclosed only for purposes consistent with this code and applicable federal or state law or under rules adopted by an investigating agency:

- (1) a report of alleged or suspected abuse or neglect made under this chapter and the identity of the person making the report; and
- (2) except as otherwise provided in this section, the files, reports, records, communications, audiotapes, videotapes, and working papers used or developed in an investigation under this chapter or in providing services as a result of an investigation.

Fam. Code § 261.201(a). The submitted information was used or developed in an investigation by the department of suspected child abuse under chapter 261 of the Family Code. See id. §§ 101.003(a) (defining “child” for purposes of section 261.201), 261.2001(1) (defining “abuse” for purposes of chapter 261 of the Family Code). Thus, the submitted information is within the scope of section 261.201(a). Accordingly, we find the submitted information is generally confidential under section 261.201(a). However, section 261.201(a) provides information encompassed by that section may be disclosed “for purposes consistent with [the Family Code] and applicable federal or state law.” Id. § 261.201(a). We note the submitted information is also subject to section 58.008 of the Family Code, which constitutes applicable state law for purposes of section 261.201(a). Accordingly, we will address the applicability of section 58.008 to the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 58.008 of the Family Code, which provides, in part:

(b) Except as provided by Subsection (d), law enforcement records concerning a child and information concerning a child that are stored by electronic means or otherwise and from which a record could be generated may not be disclosed to the public and shall be:

(1) if maintained on paper or microfilm, kept separate from adult records;

(2) if maintained electronically in the same computer system as adult records, accessible only under controls that are separate and distinct from the controls to access electronic data concerning adults; and

(3) maintained on a local basis only and not sent to a central state or federal depository, except as provided by Subsection (c) or Subchapter B, D, or E.

(d) Law enforcement records concerning a child may be inspected or copied by:

(1) a juvenile justice agency, as defined by Section 58.101;

(2) a criminal justice agency, as defined by Section 411.082, Government Code;

(3) the child; or

(4) the child’s parent or guardian.

Act of May 28, 2017, 85th Leg., R.S., S.B. 1304, § 13 (to be codified at Fam. Code § 58.008(b), (d)); see also Fam. Code § 51.03(a) (defining “delinquent conduct” for purposes of title 3 of Family Code); Act of May 19, 2017, 85th Leg., R.S., S.B. 1488, § 7.002 (to be codified as amendments to Fam. Code § 51.03(b)); Act of May 30, 2017, 85th Leg., R.S., H.B. 29, § 21 (to be codified as amendments to Fam. Code § 51.03(b)) (defining “conduct indicating a need for supervision”). Section 58.008(b) is applicable to records of juvenile conduct that occurred before, on, or after September 1, 2017. See Act of May 28, 2017, 85th Leg., R.S., S.B. 1304, § 22. The juvenile must have been at least 10 years old and less than 17 years of age when the conduct occurred. See Fam. Code § 51.02(2) (defining “child” for purposes of title 3 of Family Code). We find the submitted information involves a juvenile offender, so as to fall within the scope of section 58.008(b). Therefore, the submitted information is generally confidential pursuant to section 58.008(b) of the Family Code.

In this instance, the requestor is a representative of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice (“TDCJ”). Section 58.008(d) gives a “criminal justice agency, as defined by Section 411.082, Government Code” a right of access to juvenile law enforcement records. See Act of May 28, 2017, 85th Leg., R.S., S.B. 1304, § 13 (to be codified at Fam. Code § 58.008(d)). Section 411.082 of the Government Code defines a “criminal justice agency” as including “a federal or state agency that is engaged in the administration of criminal justice under a statute or executive order and that allocates a substantial portion of its annual budget to the administration of criminal justice[.]” Gov’t Code § 411.082(3)(A). “Administration of criminal justice” has the meaning assigned to it by article 60.01 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. See id. § 411.082(1). Article 60.01 of the Code of Criminal Procedure defines “administration of criminal justice” as the “performance of any of the following activities: detection, apprehension, pretrial release, post-trial release, prosecution, adjudication, correctional supervision, or rehabilitation of an offender. The term includes criminal identification activities and the collection, storage, and dissemination of [CHRI].” Crim. Proc. Code art. 60.01(1).

We understand TDCJ is a criminal justice agency as defined by section 411.082. See id. Therefore, the requestor generally has a right of access to the submitted information under section 58.008(d) of the Family Code, and this information may not be withheld under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 58.008(b). As noted above, the submitted information is also subject to section 261.201(a) of the Family Code. Records subject to section 261.201 may be disclosed under applicable state law and for purposes consistent with the Family Code. See Fam. Code § 261.201(a). Section 58.008(d) is applicable state law allowing disclosure to TDCJ. However, the department must determine whether releasing the submitted information to TDCJ is consistent with the Family Code. If the department determines TDCJ does not intend to use the submitted information for purposes consistent with the Family Code, then the department must withhold this information in its entirety pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(a) of the Family Code. See id. § 261.201(b)-(g), (k), (l) (listing entities authorized to receive section 261.201 information); Open Records Decision Nos. 655 (1997), 440 at 2 (1986) (construing predecessor statute). If the department determines TDCJ intends to use the submitted information for purposes consistent with the Family Code, then the requestor has a right of access to this information pursuant to section 58.008(d) of the Family Code, and the department may not withhold this information from the requestor under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 58.008(b) of the Family Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
