Dear Ms. Lutton:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 681281.

The Dallas County Sheriff's Department (the "sheriff's department") received a request for several categories of statistical information related to United States Department of Homeland Security ("DHS") immigration detainer forms during a specified time period.¹ The sheriff's department states it does not maintain information responsive to portion of the request.² The sheriff's department claims the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception the sheriff's department claims and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.³

¹We note the functions of the Immigration and Naturalization Service (the "INS") were transferred to the DHS on March 1, 2003. See Homeland Security Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-296, 116 Stat. 2135 (2002).

²The Act does not require a governmental body that receives a request for information to create information that did not exist when the request was received. See Econ. Opportunities Dev. Corp. v. Bustamante, 562 S.W.2d 266 (Tex. Civ. App.—San Antonio 1978, writ dismissed); Open Records Decision Nos. 605 at 2 (1992), 563 at 8 (1990), 555 at 1-2 (1990), 452 at 3 (1986), 362 at 2 (1983).

³We assume the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. This section encompasses section 236.6 of title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations, which protects information regarding detainees held on behalf of the DHS.⁴ This section provides as follows:

No person, including any state or local government entity or any privately operated detention facility, that houses, maintains, provides services to, or otherwise holds any detainee on behalf of the Service (whether by contract or otherwise), and no other person who by virtue of any official or contractual relationship with such person obtains information relating to any detainee, shall disclose or otherwise permit to be made public the name of, or other information relating to, such detainee. Such information shall be under the control of the Service and shall be subject to public disclosure only pursuant to the provisions of applicable federal laws, regulations and executive orders. Insofar as any documents or other records contain such information, such documents shall not be public records. This section applies to all persons and information identified or described in it, regardless of when such persons obtained such information, and applies to all requests for public disclosure of such information, including requests that are the subject of proceedings pending as of April 17, 2002.

8 C.F.R. § 236.6; see also id. § 1.2 (defining Service as “U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, U.S. Customs and Border Protection, and/or U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, as appropriate in the context in which the term appears”). The sheriff’s department states the submitted information pertains to detainees for purposes of section 236.6. Based on our review, we find the sheriff’s department is required to abide by rules promulgated by the DHS with regard to the detainees. See id. § 2.1 (providing Secretary of Homeland Security may issue regulations to administer and enforce laws relating to immigration and naturalization of aliens); see also ACLU of N.J., Inc. v. County of Hudson, 799 A.2d 629 (N.J. 2002) (stating while state possesses sovereign authority over operation of its jails, it may not operate them, in respect to INS detainees, in any way that derogates federal government’s exclusive and expressed interest in regulating aliens). The sheriff’s department does not provide our office with any applicable federal law, regulation, or executive order that provides the requestor with a right of access to the information at issue. We therefore conclude the submitted information is made confidential by section 236.6 of title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations and must be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 1103(a)(3) of title 8 of the United States Code (providing the Secretary of Homeland Security shall establish regulations necessary to carry out laws relating to immigration and naturalization) and section 236.6 of title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations. See ACLU, 799 A.2d at 655 (concluding because INS had authority to promulgate 8 C.F.R. § 236.6, provision preempts state law requiring disclosure of requested information); see also English v. Gen. Elec. Co., 496 U.S. 72, 79 (1990) (noting state law is preempted to extent it actually conflicts with federal law); La. Pub. Serv. Comm'n v. FCC, 476 U.S. 355, 369 (1986) (noting federal agency acting within scope of its congressionally delegated authority may preempt state regulation).

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
