

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

November 2, 2017

Ms. Agatha Wade
Assistant Criminal District Attorney
Bexar County
101 West Nueva Street, 7th Floor
San Antonio, Texas 78205

OR2017-25120

Dear Ms. Wade:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 682864 (BCCDAO File #5961; ORR 2132).

The Bexar County District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney's office") received a request for information pertaining to investigations of law enforcement officers during a specified time period. You state the district attorney's office does not maintain some of the requested information.¹ You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.108(b)(2) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure an internal record or notation of a law enforcement agency or prosecutor if "the internal record or notation relates to law enforcement only in relation to an investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication[.]" Gov't Code § 552.108(b)(2). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(b)(2) must demonstrate the information at issue relates to a criminal investigation that concluded in a final result other than conviction or deferred adjudication. See id. §§ 552.108(b)(2), .301(e)(1)(A). You state the submitted information pertains to cases that concluded in final results other than conviction or deferred adjudication. Based on this representation, we conclude section 552.108(b)(2) of the Government Code is applicable to the information at issue.

Section 552.108, however, does not except from disclosure basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime. Id. § 552.108(c). Basic information refers to the information held to be public in Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). See Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information made public by Houston Chronicle). We note basic information includes, among other items, the names of the arrestees, the offenses charged, the location of the crime, the premises involved, and the identities of the complainants and the investigating officers. Thus, with the exception of basic information, which must be released, the department may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(b)(2) of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
