ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

November 7, 2017

Mr. Nick Lealos
Assistant General Counsel
Texas Department of Public Safety
P.O. Box 4087

OR2017-25426

Dear Mr. Lealos:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 683174 (PIR# 17-6118).

The Texas Department of Public Safety ("DPS") received a request for two sets of specified notices sent to certain employees. You state you have released some information to the requestor. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This exception encompasses information other statutes make confidential, such as the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA"). See 42 U.S.C. §§ 12101 et seq. Title I of the ADA requires information about the medical conditions and medical histories of applicants or employees be (1) collected and maintained on separate forms, (2) kept in separate medical files, and (3) treated as a confidential medical record. 29 C.F.R. § 1630.14(c). An employer's medical examination or inquiry into the ability of an employee to perform job-related functions is to be treated as a confidential medical record. Id.; see also Open Records Decision No. 641 (1996). The federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "EEOC") has determined medical information for purposes of the ADA includes "specific information about an individual's disability and related functional limitations, as well as general statements that an individual has a disability or that an ADA reasonable accommodation has been provided for a particular individual." See Letter from Ellen J. Vargyas, Legal Counsel, EEOC, to Barry Kearney, Associate General Counsel, National Labor Relations Board, 3 (Oct. 1, 1997). Upon review, we find the ADA is applicable to the submitted information. Thus, DPS must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with the ADA.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Ashley Crutchfield
Assistant Attorney General
