

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

November 15, 2017

Mr. Phillip J. Smith
Assistant District Attorney
Civil Division
County of Smith
100 North Broadway, 4th Floor
Tyler, Texas 75702

OR2017-26116

Dear Mr. Smith:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 685388.

The Smith County Fire Marshall's Office (the "office") received a request for a specified incident report. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This section encompasses chapter 352 of the Local Government Code. Subchapter B of chapter 352 pertains to the powers and duties of county fire marshals. The subchapter provides the marshal shall investigate the cause, origin, and circumstances of fires that destroy property within the marshal's jurisdiction. Local Gov't Code § 352.013. In certain cases, such as where arson is suspected, the marshal may determine that further investigation is necessary and, in such cases, is granted subpoena powers and the authority to administer oaths and gather and preserve evidence. Id. § 352.015.

You assert the submitted information is protected from disclosure under section 352.017 of the Local Government Code. Section 352.017, in relevant part, provides:

(a) In a proceeding under this subchapter, the county fire marshal may:

- (1) conduct an investigation or examination in private;
- (2) exclude a person who is not under examination; and
- (3) separate witnesses from each other until each witness is examined.

Id. § 352.017(a). You argue, relying on Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977), the submitted information is protected from disclosure under subchapter B of chapter 352. In Pruitt, the Texas Supreme Court interpreted the statutory predecessor to subchapter B of Chapter 352 of the Local Government Code. The court concluded the purpose of the statute was to preclude interference with the fire marshal's law enforcement duties with respect to active investigatory records of the county fire marshal. 551 S.W.2d at 710. You state that the arson investigation of the fire marshal's office is ongoing and release of the submitted information would interfere with the investigation. Accordingly, based upon your arguments and our review, we conclude the submitted information may be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with the holding in Pruitt interpreting section 352.017(a) of the Local Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
