Dear Mr. Brown:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 685044 (TDCJ #s AL0079 & AL0082).

The Texas Department of Criminal Justice (the "department") received two requests from different requestors for information pertaining to named lethal injection drugs, including inventory logs, lab reports, expiration and beyond-use dates, correspondence, destruction notices, chain of custody records, invoices, receipts, testing documents, all United States Form Schedules I & II, prescription information, import documents, and records involving the refusal to produce substances for execution purposes. You state the department will release some information to the requestors. You claim some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.1081 and 552.136 of the Government Code. We have considered the exceptions you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.1081 of the Government Code states:

Information is excepted from the requirements of [the Act] if it contains identifying information under Article 43.14, Code of Criminal Procedure, including that of:

- (1) any person who participates in an execution procedure, including a person who uses, supplies, or administers a substance during the execution; and
- (2) any person or entity that manufactures, transports, tests, procures, compounds, prescribes, dispenses, or provides a substance or supplies used in an execution.

Gov't Code § 552.1081. Article 43.14(b) of the Code of Criminal Procedure states the name, address, and other identifying information of certain persons or entities involved in execution procedures are confidential. Crim. Proc. Code art. 43.14(b). You state portions of the submitted information consist of the identifying information of entities and a person used for the procurement and testing of execution drugs. Upon review, we find the information we have marked consists of the identifying information of entities and a person that participate in execution procedures or manufacture, transport, test, procure, compound, prescribe, or provide supplies or substances used in an execution. Thus, we find the department must withhold the information we marked under section 552.1081 of the Government Code.

The remaining information contain an access device number subject to section 552.136 of the Government Code. Section 552.136 provides, “[n]otwithstanding any other provision of [the Act], a credit card, debit card, charge card, or access device number that is collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental body is confidential.” Gov't Code § 552.136(b); see id. § 552.136(a) (defining “access device”). Upon review, we find the department must withhold the access device number we marked under section 552.136 of the Government Code.

In summary, the department must withhold the information we marked under section 552.1081 of the Government Code. The department must withhold the information we marked under section 552.136 of the Government Code. The department must release the remaining information.
