

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

November 20, 2017

Ms. Ruhee G. Leonard
Assistant County Attorney
County of Williamson
405 M.L.K. Street, #7
Georgetown, Texas 78626

OR2017-26553

Dear Ms. Leonard:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 685857.

Williamson County (the "county") received a request for records related to a specified hazardous materials response at a specified address. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from public disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. You contend the submitted information is confidential under section 552.101 in conjunction with section 418.178 of the Government Code. Section 418.178 was added to chapter 418 of the Government Code as part of the Texas Homeland Security Act and provides as follows:

- (a) In this section, "explosive weapon" has the meaning assigned by Section 46.01, Penal Code.

(b) Information is confidential if it is information collected, assembled, or maintained by or for a governmental entity and:

(1) is more than likely to assist in the construction or assembly of an explosive weapon or a chemical, biological, radiological, or nuclear weapon of mass destruction; or

(2) indicates the specific location of:

(A) a chemical, biological agent, toxin, or radioactive material that is more than likely to be used in the construction or assembly of such a weapon; or

(B) unpublished information relating to a potential vaccine or to a device that detects biological agents or toxins.

Id. § 418.178. The fact that information may be related to biological toxins does not make such information per se confidential under section 418.178. See Open Records Decision No. 649 at 3 (1996) (language of confidentiality provision controls scope of its protection). As with any confidentiality statute, a governmental body asserting section 418.178 must adequately explain how the responsive records fall within the scope of that provision. See Gov't Code § 552.301(e)(1)(A) (governmental body must explain how claimed exception to disclosure applies).

You contend the submitted information is confidential under section 418.178(b) because it reveals information regarding a specific facility that stores hazardous chemicals that are more than likely to assist in the construction or assembly of an explosive weapon. You assert releasing the submitted information would identify the locations of these dangerous chemicals. Typically, only that information which would reveal the location of these hazardous chemicals is protected under section 418.178(b). However, in this instance, the requestor seeks information related to a specified facility. Thus, because the location of the facility at issue is already known to this requestor, withholding only that information which would indicate the location of the hazardous chemicals would not effectuate the purpose of section 418.178 and would, in fact, result in the release of confidential information. Accordingly, we conclude the submitted information is confidential under section 418.178 of the Government Code, and the county must withhold the submitted information under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that basis.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
