Ms. Leigh M. Savage

Texas Forensic Science Commission

OR2017-28321

Dear Ms. Savage:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 687620.

The Texas Forensic Science Commission (the "commission") received a request for six categories of communications pertaining to a specified court case involving a named individual. You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. You also state you notified the Travis County District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney's office") of the request for information and of its right to submit arguments to this office as to why the submitted information should not be released. See Gov't Code § 552.304 (interested party may submit comments stating why information should or should not be released). We have received comments from the district attorney's office. We have considered the submitted arguments and reviewed the submitted information.

Initially, we note the submitted information contains a court-filed document. Section 552.022(a)(17) of the Government Code provides for required public disclosure of "information that is also contained in a public court record," unless the information is made confidential under the Act or other law. Id. § 552.022(a)(17). Although the commission and the district attorney's office seek to withhold this information under section 552.108 of the Government Code, this section is a discretionary exception and does not make information confidential under the Act. See Open Records Decision Nos. 665 at 2 n.5 (2000)

(discretionary exceptions generally), 663 at 5 (1999) (waiver of discretionary exceptions), 177 at 3 (1977) (statutory predecessor to Gov't Code § 552.108 subject to waiver). As such, section 552.108 does not make information confidential for the purposes of section 552.022. Accordingly, the commission may not withhold the court-filed document, which we have marked, under section 552.108. As no other exceptions to disclosure of the marked court-filed document have been raised, it must be released pursuant to section 552.022(a)(17) of the Government Code. However, we will address the arguments against disclosure of the remaining information.

Section 552.108(a) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “[i]nformation held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor that deals with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime . . . if: (1) release of the information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime[.]” Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(1). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(1) must explain how and why release of the requested information would interfere with the detection, investigation, or prosecution of crime. See id. §§ 552.108(a)(1), .301(e)(1)(A); see also Ex parte Pruitt, 551 S.W.2d 706 (Tex. 1977). Section 552.108 may be invoked by any proper custodian of information relating to a pending investigation or prosecution of criminal conduct. See Open Records Decision No. 474 at 4-5 (1987). Where a non-law enforcement agency has custody of information that would otherwise qualify for exception under section 552.108 as information relating to the pending case of a law enforcement agency, the custodian of the records may withhold the information if it provides this office with a demonstration that the information relates to the pending case and a representation from the law enforcement agency that it wishes to have the information withheld.

The district attorney's office states it objects to disclosure of the remaining information because its release would interfere with an ongoing criminal case. Based on this representation, we conclude the commission may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code on behalf of the district attorney's office. See Houston Chronicle Publ'g Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975) (court delineates law enforcement interests that are present in active cases), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976).

In summary, the marked court-filed document must be released pursuant to section 552.022(a)(17) of the Government Code. The commission may withhold the remaining information under section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code on behalf of the district attorney's office.
