

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

January 3, 2018

Mr. Brandon S. Belt
County Attorney
Coryell County
210 South 7th Street
Gatesville, Texas 76528

OR2018-00212

Dear Mr. Belt:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 697162.

The Coryell County Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 4 (the "justice of the peace"), received two requests for a specified autopsy report. You claim the submitted information is not subject to the Act, or, alternatively, is excepted from disclosure under sections 552.101 and 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered your claims and reviewed the submitted information.

The Act is applicable to information "collected, assembled, or maintained under a law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business by a governmental body." Gov't Code § 552.002(a)(1). However, the Act's definition of "governmental body" "does not include the judiciary." Id. § 552.003(1)(B). Information "collected, assembled, or maintained by or for the judiciary" is not subject to the Act but is instead "governed by rules adopted by the Supreme Court of Texas or by other applicable laws and rules." Id. § 552.0035(a); cf. Open Records Decision No. 131 (1976) (applying statutory predecessor to judiciary exclusion under Gov't Code § 552.003(1)(B) prior to enactment of Gov't Code § 552.0035). Therefore, the Act neither authorizes information held by the judiciary to be withheld, nor does it require such information be disclosed. See Open Records Decision No. 25 (1974). Because a justice of the peace is a member of the judiciary, the records that a justice of the peace maintains are not subject to the Act. See Tex. Const. art. V, § 1; Open Records Decision No. 25 (1974).

The instant requests were addressed to the justice of the peace. Thus, the instant requests seek information maintained by the justice of the peace. Accordingly, we conclude the requested information is not subject to the Act and need not be released in response to these requests for information. As we are able to make this determination, we need not address your remaining arguments against disclosure of the requested information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839. Questions concerning the allowable charges for providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.

Sincerely,

Cindy Nettles
Assistant Attorney General
