Dear Ms. Anderson-Nelson:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 692261 (ORR# W002171).

Dallas Area Rapid Transit ("DART") received a request for information pertaining to a specified bus accident. We understand DART will redact public citizens' dates of birth pursuant to Open Records Letter No. 2016-08689 (2016).¹ DART claims some of the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception DART claims and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. This exception encompasses information other statutes make confidential. DART is a regional transportation authority governed by chapter 452 of the Transportation Code. See Transp. Code ch. 452; see also id. § 452.001(1) (defining "authority" for purposes of chapter 452 of the Transportation Code). Section 452.061 of the Transportation Code provides in relevant part:

(e) Personal identifying information collected by an authority is confidential and not subject to disclosure under Chapter 552, Government Code, including a person's:

- (1) name, address, e-mail address, and phone number;
- (2) account number, password, payment transaction activity, toll or charge record, or credit, debit, or other payment card number; and
- (3) other personal financial information.

Id. § 452.061(e). DART asserts the submitted information contains personal identifying information made confidential by section 452.061(e). We note subsection 452.061(e) is contained in section 452.061, which is titled “Fares and Other Charges.” Additionally, subsections (a) through (d) of section 452.061 discuss an authority’s responsibilities in imposing fares and other charges and the state’s power to regulate taxes imposed by an authority or other compensation authorized by this section. See id. § 452.061(a)–(d). Accordingly, we conclude section 452.061(e) is only applicable to personal identifying information collected by DART for purposes relating to the collection of fares and other charges. Cf. Paxton v. Tex. Dep’t of State Health Servs., 500 S.W.3d 702, 706 (Tex. App—Austin 2016, no pet.) (holding although isolated reading of section 531.1021(g) of Government Code suggests it applies to any Office of Inspector General (“OIG”) investigation, confidentiality of OIG investigations provided by section 531.1021(g) must be read in context of OIG’s enabling provisions and thus, extended only to OIG investigations concerning fraud, waste, and abuse in the provision and delivery of health and human services in the state). Upon review, we find DART did not collect the personal identifying information for purposes relating to the collection of fares and other charges. Consequently, the personal identifying information at issue is not confidential under section 452.061(e) of the Transportation Code, and may not be withheld under section 552.101 of the Government Code on that basis.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy, which protects information that is (1) highly intimate or embarrassing, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) not of legitimate concern to the public. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). To demonstrate the applicability of common-law privacy, both prongs of this test must be satisfied. Id. at 681-82. Types of information considered intimate and embarrassing by the Texas Supreme Court are delineated in Industrial Foundation. Id. at 683. Additionally, this office has concluded some kinds of medical information are generally highly intimate or embarrassing. See Open Records Decision No. 455 (1987). Upon review, we find DART has not demonstrated any of the submitted information is highly intimate or embarrassing and not of legitimate public concern. Thus,

DART may not withhold any portion of the submitted information under section 552.101 in conjunction with common-law privacy.

We note some of the remaining information is subject to section 552.130 of the Government Code.² Section 552.130 provides information relating to a motor vehicle operator's license, driver's license, motor vehicle title or registration, or personal identification document issued by an agency of this state or another state or country is excepted from public release. See Gov't Code § 552.130. Accordingly, DART must withhold the motor vehicle record information we have marked under section 552.130 of the Government Code. DART must release the remaining information.

DART also asks this office to issue a previous determination that would permit it to withhold information under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 452.061(e) of the Transportation Code without requesting a ruling from this office. Open Records Decision No. 673 (2001). In the alternative, DART asks this office to issue a previous determination that would authorize DART to release personal identifying information collected by DART. We decline to issue a previous determination with respect to either request at this time. Accordingly, this letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. For more information concerning those rights and responsibilities, please visit our website at http://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/open/orl_ruling_info.shtml, or call the Office of the Attorney General's Open Government Hotline, toll free, at (877) 673-6839.
