Re: Request for discovery and the offense report for case No. 1520034, PD Reference No. 49705.

Dear Ms. Bradford:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 698318.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim Exhibit B may be withheld from the requestor pursuant to section 552.108(a)(1) of the Government Code. Upon review of your arguments and the submitted information, we conclude you may withhold Exhibit B under section 552.108(a)(1). However, you must release the basic information from Exhibit B pursuant to section 552.108(c) of the Government Code. Furthermore, you must withhold arrestee one's date of birth in Exhibit C pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. Paxton v. City of Dallas, No. 03-13-00546-CV, 2015 WL 3394061, at *3 (Tex. App.—Austin May 22, 2015, pet. denied) (mem. op.). However, you must release the date of birth of requestor's client to her. See Gov't Code § 552.023(b) (governmental body may not deny access to person to whom information relates, or that person's representative, solely on grounds that information is considered confidential by privacy principles).

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/og/memorulings>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.
