

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

February 13, 2018

Mr. Shaun Carpenter
Assistant District Attorney
220th Judicial District Attorney's Office
P.O. Box 368
Meridian, Texas 76665

OR2018-03370

Dear Mr. Carpenter:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 695581.

The 220th Judicial District Attorney's Office (the "district attorney's office") received a request for information pertaining to a specified incident involving the requestor, including video recordings of that incident. You state you do not have video recordings responsive to the request.<sup>1</sup> You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.108 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted information. We have also received and considered comments submitted by the requestor. See Gov't Code § 552.304 (providing that interested party may submit written comments regarding why information should or should not be released).

Initially, we address the requestor's assertion the district attorney's office possesses the requested video recordings. The district attorney's office states it does not possess the requested video recordings. We note the Act does not require a governmental body to release information that did not exist when it received a request or to create responsive information.

<sup>1</sup>The Act does not require a governmental body to release information that did not exist when a request for information was received or to prepare new information in response to a request. See Econ. Opportunities Dev. Corp. v. Bustamante, 562 S.W.2d 266, 267-68 (Tex. Civ. App.—San Antonio 1978, writ dismissed); Open Records Decision Nos. 605 at 2 (1992), 452 at 3 (1986), 362 at 2 (1983).

See Bustamante, 562 S.W.2d at 266; Open Records Decision Nos. 605 at 2, 555 at 1, 452 at 3, 362 at 2. Whether the district attorney's office has information responsive to this portion of the request is a question of fact. This office cannot resolve factual disputes in the opinion process. See Open Records Decision Nos. 592 at 2 (1991), 552 at 4 (1990), 435 at 4 (1986). Where fact issues are not resolvable as a matter of law, we must rely on the facts alleged to us by the governmental body requesting our decision, or upon those facts that are discernible from the documents submitted for our inspection. See ORD 552 at 4. Accordingly, we must accept the district attorney's office's representation that it has no video recordings responsive to this request.

Section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code excepts from disclosure information concerning an investigation that did not result in conviction or deferred adjudication. Gov't Code § 552.108(a)(2). A governmental body claiming section 552.108(a)(2) must demonstrate the requested information relates to a criminal investigation that has concluded in a final result other than a conviction or deferred adjudication. See id. § 552.301(e)(1)(A); Open Records Decision No. 434 (1986). You state the submitted information pertains to a closed criminal case that did not result in prosecution. Based on this representation, we agree section 552.108(a)(2) is applicable to the submitted information.

However, section 552.108 does not except from disclosure "basic information about an arrested person, an arrest, or a crime." Gov't Code § 552.108(c). Section 552.108(c) refers to the basic "front-page" information held to be public in Houston Chronicle Publishing Co. v. City of Houston, 531 S.W.2d 177 (Tex. Civ. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1975), writ ref'd n.r.e. per curiam, 536 S.W.2d 559 (Tex. 1976). See also Open Records Decision No. 127 (1976) (summarizing types of information considered to be basic information). Accordingly, with the exception of basic information, which must be released, the district attorney's office may withhold the submitted information under section 552.108(a)(2) of the Government Code.<sup>2</sup>

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
