

KEN PAXTON
ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS

February 21, 2018

Mr. Daniel D. Jones
City Attorney
City of Fredericksburg
126 West Main Street
Fredericksburg, Texas 78624-3708

OR2018-04070

Dear Mr. Jones:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 696688.

The City of Fredericksburg (the "city") received a request for information pertaining to a named city police officer. You state the city is releasing some information. We understand the city will redact information subject to section 552.117(a)(2) of the Government Code pursuant to Open Records Decision No. 670 (2001).<sup>1</sup> You claim the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception you claim and reviewed the submitted representative sample of information.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Open Records Decision No. 670 authorizes all governmental bodies to withhold the current and former home addresses and telephone numbers, personal cellular telephone and pager numbers, social security numbers, and family member information of peace officers under section 552.117(a)(2) of the Government Code without necessity of requesting an attorney general decision. ORD 670.at 6.

<sup>2</sup>We assume that the "representative sample" of records submitted to this office is truly representative of the requested records as a whole. See Open Records Decision Nos. 499 (1988), 497 (1988). This open records letter does not reach, and therefore does not authorize the withholding of, any other requested records to the extent that those records contain substantially different types of information than that submitted to this office.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure “information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision.” Gov’t Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 encompasses the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (the “FCRA”), 15 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq. Section 1681b of the FCRA permits a consumer reporting agency to furnish a consumer report to a person the consumer reporting agency has reason to believe intends to use the information for employment purposes. See id. § 1681b(a)(3)(B); see also id. § 1681a(b), (d) (defining “person” and “consumer report”). Section 1681b further provides “[a] person shall not use or obtain a consumer report for any purpose unless . . . the consumer report is obtained for a purpose for which the consumer report is authorized to be furnished under this section; and . . . the purpose is certified in accordance with section 1681e of this title by a prospective user of the report through a general or specific certification.” Id. § 1681b(f). Section 1681e provides for the maintenance of procedures by consumer reporting agencies under which prospective users of consumer reports must identify themselves, certify the purposes for which they seek information, and certify that the information will be used for no other purpose. See id. § 1681e(a); see also Open Records Decision No. 373 at 2 (1983) (stating that federal law strictly limits distribution of consumer credit reports by credit reporting agencies). You state Exhibit C-1 consists of a consumer report furnished to the city by a consumer agency for purposes of section 1681b of the FCRA. We note the FCRA does not permit the disclosure of information in a consumer report for the purpose of responding to a request for information under the Act. Therefore, the city must withhold Exhibit C-1 under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with the FCRA.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code encompasses the doctrine of common-law privacy, which protects information that is (1) highly intimate or embarrassing, the publication of which would be highly objectionable to a reasonable person, and (2) not of legitimate concern to the public. Indus. Found. v. Tex. Indus. Accident Bd., 540 S.W.2d 668, 685 (Tex. 1976). To demonstrate the applicability of common-law privacy, both prongs of this test must be satisfied. Id. at 681-82. Types of information considered intimate and embarrassing by the Texas Supreme Court are delineated in Industrial Foundation. Id. at 683. This office has found personal financial information not relating to a financial transaction between an individual and a governmental body is generally highly intimate or embarrassing. See Open Records Decision Nos. 600 (1992) (employee’s designation of retirement beneficiary, choice of insurance carrier, election of optional coverages, direct deposit authorization, forms allowing employee to allocate pretax compensation to group insurance, health care or dependent care), 523 (1989) (common-law privacy protects credit reports, financial statements, and other personal financial information), 373 (1983) (sources of income not related to financial transaction between individual and governmental body protected under common-law privacy). Upon review, we agree the information you marked, as well as the additional information we marked, meets the standard articulated by the Texas Supreme Court in Industrial Foundation. Accordingly, the city must withhold the information you marked and the additional information we marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses information made confidential by section 1703.306 of the Occupations Code, which provides,

(a) A polygraph examiner, trainee, or employee of a polygraph examiner, or a person for whom a polygraph examination is conducted or an employee of the person, may not disclose information acquired from a polygraph examination to another person other than:

- (1) the examinee or any other person specifically designated in writing by the examinee;
- (2) the person that requested the examination;
- (3) a member, or the member's agent, of a governmental agency that licenses a polygraph examiner or supervises or controls a polygraph examiner's activities;
- (4) another polygraph examiner in private consultation; or
- (5) any other person required by due process of law.

(b) The [Texas Department of Licensing and Regulation] or any other governmental agency that acquires information from a polygraph examination under this section shall maintain the confidentiality of the information.

Occ. Code § 1703.306(a), (b). Exhibit D consists of information acquired from a polygraph examination. The requestor does not fall within any of the categories of individuals who have a right of access to the submitted polygraph information under section 1703.306(a). Accordingly, the city must withhold Exhibit D under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 1703.306 of the Occupations Code.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses information made confidential by statute, such as the Medical Practice Act ("MPA"), subtitle B of title 3 of the Occupations Code, which governs release of medical records. Section 159.002 of the MPA provides, in relevant part:

(a) A communication between a physician and a patient, relative to or in connection with any professional services as a physician to the patient, is confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.

(b) A record of the identity, diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment of a patient by a physician that is created or maintained by a physician is confidential and privileged and may not be disclosed except as provided by this chapter.

(c) A person who receives information from a confidential communication or record as described by this chapter, other than a person listed in Section 159.004 who is acting on the patient's behalf, may not disclose the information except to the extent that disclosure is consistent with the authorized purposes for which the information was first obtained.

Occ. Code § 159.002(a)-(c). Information subject to the MPA includes both medical records and information obtained from those medical records. See id. §§ 159.002, .004. This office has concluded the protection afforded by section 159.002 extends only to records created by either a physician or someone under the supervision of a physician. See Open Records Decision Nos. 487 (1987), 370 (1983), 343 (1982). Upon review, we agree that Exhibit E constitutes a record of the identity, diagnosis, evaluation, or treatment of a patient by a physician. Accordingly, the city must withhold Exhibit E under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with the MPA.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code also encompasses section 1701.454 of the Occupations Code. Section 1701.454 governs the public availability of information submitted to the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement ("TCOLE") under subchapter J of chapter 1701 of the Occupations Code and provides as follows:

(a) All information submitted to [TCOLE] under this subchapter is confidential and is not subject to disclosure under [the Act], unless the person resigned or was terminated due to substantiated incidents of excessive force or violations of the law other than traffic offenses.

(b) Except as provided by this subchapter, a [TCOLE] member or other person may not release information submitted under this subchapter.

Occ. Code § 1701.454. Exhibit F consists of an F-5 Report of Separation of Licensee. The information at issue does not indicate the officer at issue resigned or was terminated due to substantiated incidents of excessive force or violations of the law other than traffic offenses. Therefore, the city must withhold Exhibit F under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 1701.454 of the Occupations Code.

In summary, the department must withhold Exhibit C-1 under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with the FCRA. The city must withhold the information you marked and the additional information we marked under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with common-law privacy. The city must withhold Exhibit D under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 1703.306 of the Occupations Code. The city must withhold Exhibit E under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with the MPA. The city must withhold Exhibit F under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 1701.454 of the Occupations Code. The city must release the remaining information.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor.
