Mr. David T. Ritter
Counsel for the City of McKinney
Brown & Hofmeister, L.L.P.

OR2019-01349

Dear Mr. Ritter:

You ask whether certain information is subject to required public disclosure under the Public Information Act (the "Act"), chapter 552 of the Government Code. Your request was assigned ID# 748375 (City ID G9837).

The City of McKinney (the "city"), which you represent, received a request for information pertaining to airport ground leases. The city states it will release some of the requested information. The city claims the submitted information is excepted from disclosure under section 552.101 of the Government Code. We have considered the exception the city claims and reviewed the submitted information.

Section 552.101 of the Government Code excepts from disclosure "information considered to be confidential by law, either constitutional, statutory, or by judicial decision." Gov't Code § 552.101. Section 552.101 of the Government Code encompasses information protected by other statutes. As part of the Texas Homeland Security Act, sections 418.176 through 418.182 were added to chapter 418 of the Government Code. These provisions make confidential certain information related to terrorism. The city asserts the submitted information is made confidential by section 418.181 of the Government Code. Section 418.181 provides;

Those documents or portions of documents in the possession of a governmental entity are confidential if they identify the technical details of particular vulnerabilities of critical infrastructure to an act of terrorism.

Id. § 418.181. The fact that information may relate to a governmental body's security concerns does not make the information per se confidential under the Texas Homeland Security Act. See Open Records Decision No. 649 at 3 (1996) (language of confidentiality provision controls scope of its protection). Furthermore, the mere recitation by a governmental body of a statute's key terms is not sufficient to demonstrate the applicability of a claimed provision. As with any exception to disclosure, a governmental body asserting one of the confidentiality provisions of the Texas Homeland Security Act must adequately explain how the responsive records fall within the scope of the claimed provision. See Gov't Code § 552.301(e)(1)(A) (governmental body must explain how claimed exception to disclosure applies).

The city informs us the submitted information details the exact layout of facilities of the fixed-base operator facility at McKinney National Airport (the "airport"). You assert, and we agree, the airport is critical infrastructure. See generally id. § 421.001 (defining "critical infrastructure" to include "all public or private assets, systems, and functions vital to the security, governance, public health and safety, economy, or morale of the state or the nation"). You argue the submitted information, if released, "would compromise the safety and security measures" of the airport. Based on your arguments and our review, we find you demonstrated release of the submitted information would identify the technical details and particular vulnerabilities of the airport to an act of terrorism. Thus, the city must withhold the submitted information in its entirety under section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 418.181 of the Government Code.

This letter ruling is limited to the particular information at issue in this request and limited to the facts as presented to us; therefore, this ruling must not be relied upon as a previous determination regarding any other information or any other circumstances.

This ruling triggers important deadlines regarding the rights and responsibilities of the governmental body and of the requestor. providing public information under the Act may be directed to the Office of the Attorney General, toll free, at (888) 672-6787.
