Re: Request for case numbers of sex crime reports from 01/01/16 to present; (ORR D026164-100918)

Dear Ms. McClellan:

The Office of the Attorney General has received your request for a ruling and assigned your request ID# 747016.

After reviewing your arguments and the submitted information, we have determined your request does not present a novel or complex issue. Thus, we are addressing your claims in a memorandum opinion. You claim the submitted responsive information must be withheld from the requestor.¹ Upon review of your arguments and the information at issue, we conclude you must withhold the submitted responsive information pursuant to section 552.101 of the Government Code in conjunction with section 261.201(a) of the Family Code.

For more information on the cited exception, please refer to the open government information on our website at <https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/og/memorulings>. You may also contact our Open Government Hotline at 1-877-OPENTEX.

¹We note you did not comply with the requirements of section 552.301 of the Government Code. See Gov't Code § 552.301(b), (e). Nevertheless, because section 552.101 of the Government Code can provide a compelling reason to overcome the presumption of openness caused by a failure to comply with section 552.301, we will consider your claim under that section.
